Box Office How To On Sale:

Hollywood Dealmaking Dina Appleton, Daniel Yankelevits, 2025-01-14 This book is a must have resource for anyone looking to break into Hollywood or seasoned veterans who need a quick reference guide. Matt Belloni Puck founding partner and host of The Town. The legal resources of studios and networks are legendary often intimidating independent producers, writers, actors, directors, agents, and others as they try to navigate through the intricate maze in negotiations. This invaluable reference presents the interests of talent as well as the point of view of creative executives, producers, entertainment attorneys, agents, and managers and major guilds making clear the role that each plays in the deal making process. Readers will find expert insights to talent and production deals for television, feature film, major streaming platforms, and other digital media as well as an in depth overview of net profits and other forms of contingent compensation. Hollywood Dealmaking Fourth Edition also addresses changes resulting from new union agreements and the evolution in deals as worldwide streaming platforms and FAST channels erode the past dominance of cable and linear television. In addition this comprehensive guide includes Basics of copyright law and impacts of recent legislation and court decisions on the deal making landscape. New section on non writing executive producer NWEP deals. Explanations of employment deals. Details of rights acquisition. Sample contracts and forms. Timely new negotiating tips on the evolving landscape straight from industry insiders. Deal considerations of new technologies such as generative AI. Glossary of industry lingo and terminology. And much more. Peppered with facts on the deals of superstar players and with summaries in each section to clarify complex legal issues. Hollywood Dealmaking is an essential resource for industry novices and veterans alike who want to sharpen their negotiation skills and successfully close each deal

Box Office , 1958 Taiwan Cinema, Memory, and Modernity Ivy

I-chu Chang, 2019-01-04 This book investigates the aesthetics and politics of Post Taiwan New Cinema by examining fifteen movies by six directors and frequent award winners in international film festivals. The book considers the works of such prominent directors as Edward Yang, Tsai Ming liang, and Chang Tsuo chi, and their influence on Asian films as well as emergent phenomenal directors such as Wei Te sheng, Zero Chou, and Chung Mong hong. It also explores the possibility of transnational and trans local social sphere in the interstices of layered colonial legacies, nation state domination, and global capitalism. Considering Taiwan cinema in the wake of globalization it analyses how these films represent the socio political transition among multiple colonial legacies, global capitalism, and the changing cross strait relation between Taiwan and the Mainland China. The book discusses how these films represent nomadic urban middle class displaced transnational migrant workers, roaming children and young gangsters, and explores how the continuity disjunction of globalization has not only carved into historical and personal memories and individual bodies but also influenced the transnational production modes and marketing strategies of cinema
