Explores the relation between negative affect ethics and aestheticslt ligt lt ulgt lt pgt Humility and humiliation have an awkward often unacknowledged intimacy Humility may be a queenly cardinal or monkish virtue while humiliation points to an affective state at the extreme end of shame Yet a shared etymology links the words to lowness and further down to the earth As this study suggests like the terms in question T S Eliot and Samuel Beckett share an imperfect likeness Between them is a common interest in states of abjection shame and suffering and possible responses to such states Tracing the seems an almost unintentional part of their content Lillian Hellman who professed no special interest in women s issues and disdained discussions of herself as a woman playwright nonetheless addressed in her dramas numerous feminist themes Spirituality Duncan S. Ferguson,2018-02-28 The world contrary to popular understanding is not less religious but in many ways more religious than ever Two issues seem to be emerging in this resurgence One is the need for a spiritual center that gives integration a sense of inner peace ethical guidance and meaning and direction in life It is present in most of the world s great religious traditions and present elsewhere as humans seek to find their way in a confusing conflicted and rapidly changing world Accompanying this quest for a deeper spirituality is the God question and a desire to understand the divine in new ways that match a contemporary worldview. This book Mindful Spirituality invites the reader to find a thoughtful, credible and satisfying way to address these two major concerns. While starting within a Christian frame of reference, the book is not exclusive but ecumenical and interfaith in spirit. It is especially helpful to those with no set spiritual pathway and those disenchanted with traditional approaches that seem out of date and for another era. In a deep and sacred way, it invites the reader to reach upward for a thoughtful way of understanding transcendence, to open inward for a mature and gratifying spirituality and to expand outward in responsible and loving service.
