Online Process That World Deleuze Performances:

Deleuze and the Cinemas of Performance Elena del Rio,2008-06-25 This book offers a unique reconsideration of the performing body that privileges the notion of affective force over the notion of visual form at the centre of former theories of spectacle and performativity Drawing on Gilles Deleuze's philosophy of the body and on Deleuze Spinoza's relevant concepts of affect and expression Elena del Rio examines a kind of cinema that she calls affective performative The features of this cinema unfold via detailed and engaging discussions of the movements gestures and speeds of the body in a variety of films by Douglas Sirk Rainer W Fassbinder Sally Potter Claire Denis and David Lynch Key to the book's engagement with performance is a consistent attention to the body's powers of affection

Beckett, Deleuze and Performance Daniel Koczy,2018-08-28 This book draws on the theatrical thinking of Samuel Beckett and the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze to propose a method for research undertaken at the borders of performance and philosophy Exploring how Beckett fabricates encounters with the impossible and the unthinkable in performance it asks how philosophy can approach what cannot be thought while honouring and preserving its alterity Employing its method it creates a series of encounters between aspects of Beckett's theatrical practice and a range of concepts drawn from Deleuze's philosophy Through the force of these encounters a new range of concepts is invented These provide novel ways of thinking affect and the body in performance the possibility of theatrical automation and the importance of failure and invention in our attempts to respond to performance encounters Further this book includes new approaches to Beckett's later theatrical work and provides an overview of Deleuze's conception of philosophical practice as an ongoing struggle to think with immanence

Embodied Histories, Imagined Worlds, Emplaced Resistance Ashraf Abdelhay,Sinfree Makoni,Cristine Severo,2025-12-08 Contemporary sociolinguistic theorizing is concerned with the study of social solidarity in differential contexts of power so it must engage with protesting discourses and practices In two volumes Sociolinguistics of Protesting addresses the socio discursivity of protesting from different geopolitical perspectives and illustrates how protests are socio semiotically organized and narrated Volume 1 the current volume critically rethinks protest as a central sociolinguistic practice rather than an exception to an imagined social order Drawing on transdisciplinary and various case studies from the Arab revolutions to Hong Kong's Lennon Walls and South Africa's student uprisings this volume explores how language embodiment and space intersect in acts of resistance It is the first of a two volume set that reshapes the field's understanding of language in times of crisis and uprising In Volume 2 scholars explore the complex intersections between protest language and decolonial thought It challenges dominant linguistic ideologies by uncovering how language is wielded contested and reimagined in protests against racial gendered and colonial violence From Black feminist activism in the U S to anti mining movements in South Africa and pandemic protests in Chile the chapters examine how diverse embodied linguistic practices resist dominant power structures and give voice to marginalized communities

Live Digital Theatre Aleksandar Sasha

Dundjerović, 2023-04-27 Live Digital Theatre explores the experiences of Interdisciplinary Performing Arts practitioners working on digital performance and in particular live digital theatre. Collaborating with world leading practitioners Kolectiv Theatre UK, Teatro Os Satyros Brazil and The Red Curtain International India this study investigates the ways to bring live digital performance into theatre training and performance making. The idea of Interdisciplinary Performative Pedagogies is placed within the context of the exploration of live digital theatre and is used to understand creative practices and how one can learn from these practices. The book presents a pedagogical approach to contemporary practices in digital performance from interdisciplinary live performance using digital technology to live Zoom theatre, YouTube mixed media recorded and live performance. The book also combines a series of case studies and pedagogical practices on live digital performance and intermedial theatre. This book will be of great interest to students and scholars in performing arts, digital arts, media and gaming.

Performance Art in China Thomas J. Berghuis, 2006 Performance Art in China takes as its subject one of the most dynamic and controversial areas of experimental art practice in China. In his comprehensive study Sydney based theorist and art historian Thomas J Berghuis introduces and investigates the idea of the role of the mediated subject of the acting body in art a notion grounded in the realization that the body is always present in art practice as well as its subsequent secondary representations. Through a series of in depth case studies Berghuis reveals how during the past 25 years Chinese performance artists have acted out their art often in opposition to the principles governing correct behavior in the public domain. In addition to a 25 year chronology of events a systematic index of places names and key terms as well as a bibliography and a glossary in English and Chinese this study also offers the reader numerous previously unpublished photos and documents.

Deleuze and Contemporary Art Stephen Zepke, Simon O'Sullivan, 2010 Deleuze and Contemporary Art maps the relations and resonances between the important and influential twentieth century French philosophers Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari and contemporary art practice.

Sounding Emerging Media Claire Fitch, 2022-04-19 Sounding Emerging Media details a practice based approach to sonic art and electroacoustic composition drawing on methodologies inspired by the production of electronic literature and game development. Using the structural concepts identified by Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari the book is based around ideas related to labels such as Assemblage, Strata, Smooth and Striated Space, Temporal Space and The Fold. The processes employed to undertake this research involved the creation of original texts, the development of frameworks for improvisation, the use of recordings within the process and implementation of techniques drawn from the practices of electroacoustic composition and the use of ideas borrowed from electronic literature, publishing and game development. The results have helped to shape a compositional style which draws on these processes individually or collectively drawing on practice often seen in game development, visual scores and composition using techniques found in electroacoustic music. Providing a journey through the landscape of emerging digital media, Sounding Emerging Media envisages a world where the composer, user, listener all become part of a continuum of collective artistry.
