

Opening Prayer

God of grace,

We open our hearts, minds
and souls to worship to you.

Thank you that today we dwell in your kingdom
and live in your presence.

Thank you that as we gather together
we join with all Christians across the world to glorify your holy name.

Come be with us, inspire us and lead us in our time together.
We ask all this in the beautiful name of Jesus. Amen.

Prayers in Public Schools and Other Matters United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on the Judiciary, 1963
Considers constitutional amendments to reverse various court decisions prohibiting prayer in public schools      Whose Agency Megan Hershey, 2019-06-04 Nongovernmental organizations NGOs are ubiquitous in the Global South Often international in origin many attempt to assist local efforts to improve the lives of people often living in or near poverty Yet their external origins often cloud their ability to impact health or quality of life regardless of whether volunteers are local or foreign By focusing on one particular type of NGO those organized to help prevent the spread and transmission of HIV in Kenya Megan Hershey interrogates the ways these organizations achieve or fail to achieve their planned outcomes Along the way she examines the slippery slope that is often used to define success based on meeting donor set goals versus locally identified needs She also explores the complex network of bureaucratic requirements at both the national and local levels that affect the delicate relationships NGOs have with the state Drawing on extensive original quantitative and qualitative research Whose Agency serves as a much needed case study for understanding the strengths and shortcomings of participatory development and community engagement      Embracing the Vision Linda Gaupin, 2007 In this remarkable preparation program Sr Linda walks readers through the process of experiencing the sacraments as times of growth and conversion involving everyone in the parish community She offers here everything a parish leader needs to make this happen guidelines for the facilitator liturgical prayers catechist guides student materials and family handouts all in one package the accompanying CD contains both PDF and Word documents for easy personalization and reproduction of all components of the program      Proceedings Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, 1885      The Church School Journal, 1887 breaking new study Katie Bugyis offers a new history of communities of Benedictine nuns in England from 900 to 1225 By applying innovative paleographical codicological and textual analyses to their surviving liturgical books Bugyis recovers a treasure trove of unexamined evidence for understanding these women's lives and the liturgical and pastoral ministries they performed She examines the duties and responsibilities of their chief monastic officers abbesses prioresses cantors and sacristans highlighting three of the ministries vital to their practice liturgically reading the gospel hearing confessions and offering intercessory prayers for others Where previous scholarship has argued that the various reforms of the central Middle Ages effectively relegated nuns to complete dependency on the sacramental ministrations of priests. Buggyis shows that in fact these women continued to exercise primary control over their spiritual care. Essential to this argument is the discovery that the production of the liturgical books used in these communities was carried out by female scribes, copyists, correctors and creators of texts attesting to the agency and creativity that nuns exercised in the care they extended to themselves and those who sought their hospitality, counsel, instruction, healing, forgiveness and intercession.
