not without grumbling the rigors of his lot of concern with the job at hand and with immediate needs like food and shelter and of a veteran's indifference to the flag waving of professional patriots In spite of his often acute criticisms of the Union's military leadership Watson never faltered in his belief in the Union cause and the ultimate outcome of the war nor in his dedication to Lincoln's major goals     The Food Institute's Weekly Digest American Institute of Food Distribution, 1951
