Thinking God Otherwise Alain Saudan, 2025-12-05 Contemporary French Catholic philosopher Emmanuel Falque has risen to the forefront among international intellectuals speaking on Christianity Inspired by his Catholic faith as well as his humanist vision Falque offers thought provoking answers to today's social cultural and philosophical issues The present book newly translated from the French offers a vivid and highly accessible introduction to the basic premises underlying Falque's vision In it French author Alain Saudan lucidly shows how Falque's thought not only comes from major twentieth century pioneers of Catholicism Henri de Lubac SJ Jacques Maritain, Étienne Gilson and Jean-Luc Marion but also creatively transcends their ideas by introducing novel concepts into philosophy and theology Not merely a deep reflection on Falque's project Saudan's book vividly offers a window into key debates, tensions and opportunities within the Western tradition that religious and secular cultures are continuing to grapple with today

Alvis, 2020-10-14 Continental philosophers of religion have been engaging with theological issues, concepts and questions for several decades, blurring the borders between the domains of philosophy and theology Yet when Emmanuel Falque proclaims that both theologians and philosophers need not be afraid of crossing the Rubicon, the point of no return between these often artificially separated disciplines, he scandalised both camps Despite the scholarly reservations, the theological turn in French phenomenology has decisively happened The challenge is now to interpret what this given fact of creative encounters between philosophy and theology means for these disciplines In this collection written by both theologians and philosophers the question Must we cross the Rubicon is central However rather than simply opposing or subscribing to Falque s position the individual chapters of this book interrogate and critically reflect on the relationship between theology and philosophy offering novel perspectives and redrawing the outlines of their borderlands Harcourt Science: Teacher's ed., life science units A and B ,2005      Resources in Education ,1995      A Reader's Guide to Contemporary Literature William Swan Sonnenschein,1895      Educational Motion Pictures and Slides Oregon.
