Online Transitional Justice Library Essays Second:

The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2009 Women's Human Rights Niamh Reilly, 2013-04-23

Women's Human Rights Seeking Gender Justice in a Globalising Age explores the emergence of transnational UN oriented feminist advocacy for women's human rights especially over the past three decades. It identifies the main feminist influences that have shaped the movement: liberal, radical, third world and cosmopolitan, and exposes how the Western legalist state centric and liberal biases of mainstream human rights discourse impede the realisation of human rights in women's lives everywhere. The book traces the evolution of the women's human rights movement through an examination of its key issues, debates and practical interventions in international law and policy arenas. This includes efforts to develop global gender equality norms via the UN Women's Convention, frame violence against women as a human rights issue, address gender based crimes in conflict situations, include women in conflict resolution and post conflict reconstruction, and challenge new forms of militarism. Highlight the gendered human rights dimensions of widening inequalities in a context of neo liberal globalisation. Develop human rights responses to anti feminist fundamentalist movements with a focus on reproductive and sexual rights. Ultimately Women's Human Rights reaffirms a commitment to critically reinterpreted universal human rights principles and demonstrates the vital role that bottom up transnational movements play in making them a reality in women's lives.

The Politics of Reparations and Apologies Stephanie Wolfe, 2013-11-21

The Politics of Reparations and Apologies examines the evolution and dynamics of reparation politics and justice. The volume introduces the key concepts, theories and terms associated with social movements and in particular the redress and reparation movement (RRM). Drawing from RRM's that have their foundation in World War II: the German genocides, the United States internments and the Japanese comfort women system, the volume explores each case study's relative success or failure in achieving its goals and argues that there are overarching trends that can explain success and failure more generally in the RRM movement. Using the backdrop of international criminal law and normative concepts of reparations, the volume establishes and analyzes the roles of reparations and apologies in obtaining transitional justice. In each case study, there is a detailed rundown of the political actions that were attempted to obtain redress and reparation for the victims, of how successful the attempts were, and of the crucial factors which influenced the relative success or failure. Crucially, the volume offers a comparative framework of the actions that contribute to a successful outcome for transitional justice. With the increasing normative expectation of justice in post conflict situations, this volume is a valuable resource for researchers in international affairs, human rights, political science and conflict studies.

Living Together: Elisabeth Weber, 2013

For Jacques Derrida, the notions and experiences of community, living and together never ceased to harbour radical, in fact infinite interrogations. In this volume, the paradoxes, impossibilities and singular chances that haunt the necessity of living together are evoked in Derrida's essay Avowing The Impossible around which the collection is gathered.
