A History of South African Literature Christopher Heywood, 2004-11-18 This book is a critical study of South African literature from colonial and pre colonial times onwards Christopher Heywood discusses selected poems plays and prose works in five literary traditions Khoisan Nguni Sotho Afrikaans English and Indian The discussion includes over 100 authors and selected works including poets from Mqhayi Marais and Campbell to Butler Serote and Krog theatre writers from Boniface and Black to Fugard and Mda and fiction writers from Schreiner and Plaatje to Bessie Head and the Nobel prizewinners Gordimer and Coetzee The literature is explored in the setting of crises leading to the formation of modern South Africa notably the rise and fall of the Emperor Shaka's Zulu kingdom the Colenso crisis industrialisation the colonial and post colonial wars of 1899 1914 and 1939 and the dissolution of apartheid society In Heywood's study South African literature emerges as among the great literatures of the modern world The Marginal Safari Justin Fox, 2011-03-28 I've been craving the road for some time writes Justin Fox odd words for this most seasoned of travel writers But there is more to it Restless anxious about an uneventful slide into my late 30s And thus begins ten thousand kilometres around the edge of the Republic Hugging the comforts which distance offers agitated souls he bears east from Cape Town This is fatherland and for Justin his father's land which the famous architect Revel Fox has marked as much as he had shaped his son's own identity Justin tarries at outposts and towns he skips entire cities to favour the off beat treasures of characters fashioned less by convention than by their own battles against nature or circumstance Back home his dad is fighting cancer Having travelled with acute observation he reports like a novelist stringing together scenes pictures communities and characters to form a totality of what South Africa is today as seen from its margins a sad exciting clash of histories and stories New
