

A detailed illustration of a bridge under construction. In the foreground, a large, complex mechanical structure, possibly a winch or part of the bridge's support system, is shown with various gears, pulleys, and cables. To the left, a group of construction workers wearing hard hats and work clothes are standing on a stone wall, looking towards the right. The background shows the skeletal framework of a bridge with numerous cables and structural beams. The overall style is that of a technical or industrial illustration.
