Railway and Engineering Review ,1898 Metamodernism in Contemporary British Theatre Tom Drayton,2024-10-03

Postmodern theatre is dead A new theatre is rising one that combines the well worn postmodern aesthetics of irony detachment and deconstruction with a paradoxical interest in authenticity engagement and re construction Whilst recent scholarship has treated these evolving interests as unrelated shifts in performance aesthetics this volume proposes a new understanding that these are part of a wider emerging cultural paradigm metamodernism Metamodernism in Contemporary British Theatre is the first book to focus on metamodernism and performance offering a pioneering framework by which to identify and understand metamodern theatre By drawing critical links between the works of performance theorists such as Anne Bogart and Andy Lavender and the metamodern as defined by Timotheus Vermeulen and Robin van den Akker this book makes a clear vital and urgent case for the use of the term metamodernism within mainstream theatre scholarship Focussing on small scale theatre companies across the UK including Poltergeist YESYESNONO Middle Child and The Gramophones many of whom have not been documented in academia before this book also provides a unique analysis of the theatre made by British millennials a generation who have been distinctly affected by specific structures of contemporary precarity coinciding with this wider cultural shift Through this Metamodernism in Contemporary British Theatre makes a crucial contribution towards understanding emergent developments in post millennial theatre practice across Britain and beyond
