Vietnamese Women at War Sandra C. Taylor, 1999-02-02 For as long as the Vietnamese people fought against foreign enemies women were a vital part of that struggle The victory over the French at Dien Bien Phu is said to have involved hundreds of thousands of women and many of the names in Viet Cong unit rosters were female These women were living out the ancient saying of their country When war comes even women have to fight Women from Hanoi and the countryside fought alongside their male counterparts in both the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese military in their wars against the South Vietnamese government and its French and American allies from 1945 to 1975 Sandra Taylor now draws on interviews with many of these women and on an array of newly opened archives to illuminate the motivations experiences and contributions of these women presenting not cold facts but real people These women were the wives mothers daughters and sisters of men recruited into military service and because the war lasted so long women from more than one generation of the same family often participated in the struggle Some learned to fire weapons and lay traps or to serve as village patrol guards and intelligence agents others were propagandists and recruiters or helped keep the supply lines flowing Taylor relates how this war for liberation from foreign oppressors also liberated Vietnamese women from centuries of Confucian influence that had made them second class citizens She reveals that communism's promise of freedom from those strictures influenced their involvement in the war and also shares the irony that their sex gave them an advantage in battle or subterfuge over Western opponents blinded by gender stereotypes As their country continues to modernize Vietnamese Women at War preserves these women's stories while they remain alive and before the war fades from memory By showing that they were not victims of war but active participants it offers a wholly unique perspective on that conflict It is a rare study which reveals much about gender roles and cultural differences and reminds us of the ever present human dimension of war The Oxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures Carlos Rojas, Andrea Bachner, 2016 With over forty original essays The Oxford Handbook of Modern Chinese Literatures offers an in depth engagement with the current analytical methodologies and critical practices that are shaping the field in the twenty first century Divided into three sections Structure Taxonomy and Methodology the volume carefully moves across approaches genres and forms to address a rich range topics that include popular culture in Late Qing China Zhang Guangyu's Journey to the West in Cartoons writings of Southeast Asian migrants in Taiwan the Chinese Anglophone Novel and depictions of HIV AIDS in Chu T'ien wen's Notes of a Desolate Man Silken Threads Young Yang Chung, 2005-07 This publication aims to provide a richly illustrated and authoritative historical overview of embroidery in China Korea and Vietnam China Documents Annual, 1992 The Resonance of the Qin in East Asian Art Stephen Addiss, Kenneth J.
