Meaning Making in Text S. Starc, C. Jones, A. Maiorani, 2015-05-05 Meaning Making in Text presents new insights into forms of communication in a range of contexts cultural linguistic multimodal and educational The thirteen chapters are all linked theoretically by advances in Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL The Bloomsbury Handbook of Systemic

Functional Linguistics Jonathan J. Webster, David Butt, Federico Navarro, Carol Webster, 2026-01-08 A state of the art reference to the field of systemic functional linguistics providing a guide for advanced students and researchers in the field

New Studies in Multimodality Ognyan Seizov, Janina Wildfeuer, 2019-01-24 Multimodality is one of the most popular and influential semiotic theories for analysing media However the application and conceptual anchoring of multimodality often remains geographically and disciplinarily grounded within local systems of thought New Studies in Multimodality combines the expertise of multimodalists from around the globe offering novel readings and applications of central concepts in multimodality and inviting innovative synergies between previously disparate schools Combining perspectives from the most actively developing traditions of theory and research this book progresses from classic concepts to more empirically and practice motivated contributions Contributors engage in mutual dialogue to present new theoretical perspectives and compelling applications to a variety of old and new media Expanding the basis and scope of multimodality this volume shows awareness and experience of this field in many disciplines and illustrates how versatile pervasive and relevant it is for studying today's communication phenomena Applicable Linguistics and Social Semiotics David Caldwell, John S.

Knox, J. R. Martin, 2022-11-03 Exploring the relationship between theory and practice in Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL this volume offers a state of the art overview of Applicable Linguistics Featuring both internationally renowned scholars and rising stars from Argentina Australia Austria Brazil Chile Denmark Indonesia New Zealand Singapore and the USA Applicable Linguistics and Social Semiotics examines the theoretical insights questions and developments that have emerged from the application of Systemic Functional theory to a range of fields Beyond simply reporting on the application of SFL to particular sites of communication both linguistic and semiotic this volume demonstrates how SFL has critiqued developed and transformed theory and practice and foregrounds the implications of application for Systemic Functional theory itself Covering established fields for application such as education medicine and media to relatively uncharted areas such as software design and extremist propaganda this volume provides an overview of recent linguistic and semiotic innovations informed by SFL and examines the advances that have been made from many years of productive dialogue between theory and practice Writing with Students Lucy Macnaught, 2024-08-08 Informed by systemic functional linguistics this book examines teaching English for Academic Purposes with a genre based approach to literacy pedagogy Communicating

Interpersonal Meaning in Multimodal English Textbooks Yumin Chen, Exploring multimodality in English language

teaching textbooks this book focusses on how language and image are co deployed within these resources in order to create and convey interpersonal meaning Presenting cutting edge research in appraisal studies and multimodal discourse analysis Yumin Chen uses systemic functional linguistics and social semiotics to investigate how different voices are introduced and aligned inter modally in textbooks extending the appraisal systems of engagement and graduation across language and image The book also demonstrates how linguistic and visual semiotic resources co instantiate attitude paying special attention to the attitudinal dimension of curriculum goals for school students of different ages Furthermore it examines how different kinds of coding orientation are deployed in various educational contexts and different constituent genres Demonstrating how the linguistic and semiotic theories can be adapted to analyze multimodal texts across language and image Interpersonal Meaning in Multimodal English Textbooks offers new perspectives on how to employ multimodal resources to enhance the teaching and learning of English as a foreign language American Book Publishing Record ,1985

Bilingual Learners and Social Equity Ruth Harman,2017-08-13 This volume explores how educators conceptualized and implemented critical approaches to systemic functional linguistics that support bilingual students in appropriating and challenging dominant knowledge domains in K 16 contexts The researchers exhibit a shared commitment to enacting a culturally sustaining SFL praxis that validates multilingual meaning making pushes against social inequity and fosters creative re mixing of available semiotic resources It should prove a valuable resource for students teachers and researchers interested in applied linguistics education and critical theory Designing Learning with Multimodality in English

Medium of Education (EME) Classrooms Across Asia Fei Victor Lim,Jack Pun,2025-06-12 This book provides evidence based and pedagogically focused analyses of a variety of multimodal resources to scaffold learning in contexts of English Medium Education EME in Asia The contributing authors are active researchers in the field of EME and multimodality across the primary secondary and tertiary levels from Hong Kong Indonesia Japan Singapore South Korea Taiwan and Thailand They explore both the latest theoretical conceptions on the design of EME by harnessing the affordances of multimodality as well as practical applications of multimodal pedagogies for the teaching and learning of specific subjects particularly STEM subjects They provide examples of EME lessons with annotated notes to showcase good practice Translation and Multimodality Monica Boria,Ángeles Carreres,María Noriega-Sánchez,Marcus Tomalin,2019-10-17 Translation and Multimodality Beyond Words is one of the first books to explore how translation needs to be redefined and reconfigured in contexts where multiple modes of communication such as writing images gesture and music occur simultaneously Bringing together world leading experts in translation theory and multimodality each chapter explores important interconnections among these related yet distinct disciplines As communication becomes ever more multimodal the need to consider translation in multimodal contexts is increasingly vital The various forms of meaning making that have become prominent in the twenty first century are already destabilising certain time honoured translation theoretic paradigms causing old definitions and assumptions to appear inadequate This ground breaking volume explores these important issues in relation to multimodal translation with examples from literature dance music TV film and the visual arts Encouraging a greater convergence between these two significant disciplines this text is essential for advanced students and researchers in Translation Studies Linguistics and Communication Studies Multimodal Literacies Across Digital Learning Contexts Maria Grazia Sindoni, Ilaria Moschini, 2021-11-29 This collection critically considers the question of how learning and teaching should be conceived understood and approached in light of the changing nature of learning scenarios and new pedagogies in this current age of multimodal digital texts practices and communities The book takes the concept of digital artifacts as being composed of multiple meaning making semiotic resources such as visuals music and design as its point of departure to explore how diverse communities interact with these tools and develop and explore their understanding of digital practices in learning contexts The first section of the volume examines different case studies in which involved participants learn to grapple with the introduction of digital tools for learning in children s early years of schooling The second section extends the focus to secondary and higher education settings as digital learning tools grow more complex as do students parents and teachers interactions with them and the subsequent need for new pedagogies to rethink these multimodal artifacts A final section reflects on the implications of new multimodal tools technologies and pedagogies for teachers such as on teacher training and community building among educators In its in depth look at multimodal approaches to learning as meaning making in a digital world this book will be of interest to students and scholars in multimodality English language teaching digital communication and education Meaning-making from Cover to Cover Trine Louise Bernicken, Syddansk Universitet. Center for Engelske Studier, 2011 Reading Tourism Texts Sabrina Francesconi, 2014-02-24 This volume explores the relationship between tourism and travel texts and contemporary society and how each is shaped by the other A multimodal analysis is used to consider a variety of texts including novels brochures blogs websites radio commercials videos postcards and authentic tourist pictures and their meaning making dynamics within the tourism discourse The book looks at the ways in which these different texts have influenced how tourists and travellers have been viewed over time and how we envision ourselves as tourists or travellers It puts forward multimodal analysis as the best framework for exploring the semiotic potential of these texts Including examples from the UK Malta Canada New Zealand India Jamaica and South Africa this volume will be useful for researchers and students in tourism studies communication and media studies and applied linguistics Multimodality and Multilingualism Steph Ainsworth, Dominic Griffiths, Gee Macrory, Kate Pahl, 2023-03-01 This book explores the ways in which multimodality and multilingualism as areas of study intersect and provides empirical examples of how this looks in practice from a wide range of settings The chapters include visual as well as linguistic descriptions of practice and provide an accessible introduction to multimodality and multilingualism for a readership from undergraduate students to researchers The book argues that the everyday practices of multilingual communities are multimodal in nature and that by working at the intersection of multilingualism and multimodality we may be able to make fruitful advances in multiple areas of applied linguistics and properly appreciate the actual human complexities of communication

Exploring Translation and Multilingual Text Production Erich Steiner, Colin Yallop, 2013-02-06 The series serves to propagate investigations into language usage especially with respect to computational support This includes all forms of text handling activity not only interlingual translations but also conversions carried out in response to different communicative tasks Among the major topics are problems of text transfer and the interplay between human and machine activities

From Language to Multimodality Carys Jones, Eija

Ventola, 2014-05-14 This book shares the recent debates by systemic functional linguistics and other linguistic forums Its principal focus is on how we use language to make meaning of the world on how the systems and structures of the ideational function of language represent the realisation of our experiences of the world around us

Multimodal Texts from Around the World W. Bowcher, 2012-07-24 A first in multimodal multisemiotic discourse studies this collection of original articles by international scholars focuses primarily on texts from non English speaking contexts The illuminating insights enhance our understanding of how language and other semiotic resources construe specific cultural and social concerns

Multimodal Pragmatics and Translation Sara Dicerto, 2017-11-28 This book proposes a new model for the translation oriented analysis of multimodal source texts The author guides the reader through semiotics multimodality pragmatics and translation studies on a quest for the meaning making mechanics of texts that combine images and words She openly challenges the traditional view that sees translators focusing their attention mostly on the linguistic aspect of source material in their work The central theoretical pivot around which the analytical model revolves is that multimodal texts communicate through individual images and linguistic units as well as through the interaction among textual resources and the text s interaction with its context of reference This three dimensional view offers a holistic understanding of multimodal texts and their potential translation issues to help translators improve the way they communicate multimodally across languages and cultures This book will appeal to researchers in the fields of translation studies multimodality and pragmatics
