Discursive Approaches to Politics in Malaysia Kumaran Rajandran,Charity Lee,2023-01-01 This open access book examines Malaysian politics using a linguistic perspective. It explores how language serves to de legitimise governance and its subsequent policies and activities in Malaysia. Grounded in discourse studies this edited volume presents research on the discourses produced by and on Barisan Nasional Pakatan Harapan and Perikatan Nasional from 2008 to 2020 studying how political actors de legitimise their governance through discursive means. The thirteen original chapters select spoken print and digital texts in English Malay Mandarin and Tamil and deploy varied theoretical and methodological approaches. Their linguistic analysis uncovers the language features and strategies that facilitate de legitimisation. It shows how political actors shape the discursive representation and evaluation of multiple concerns in Malaysia. Consequently Discursive Approaches to Politics in Malaysia Legitimising Governance improves our understanding of contemporary Malaysian political discourse. It is of interest to graduates and researchers in the field of discourse studies seeking to understand the discursive contours of politics in this developing Asian country

The Face of the Firm Michele Gregory, 2016-02-12 Despite decades of greater gender awareness at work in Western countries, gender inequality in the executive suites is alive and well. The Face of the Firm highlights new critical perspectives on the relationship between hegemonic masculine cultures, gender embodiment and gender disparities in corporate organizations. Using data from over 100 interviews with female and male executives who worked for some of the most prestigious advertising and computer firms in the world, the book makes important connections between the empirical data and contemporary sexism in the United States and United Kingdom. The book refocuses the debate of executive work organizational spaces and gender inequality on gendered bodies at work. It also demonstrates that gendered and sexualized relations among executives often construct the production process. The book makes a contribution to masculinity, gender and work scholarship and is organized along three key concepts: homogeneity, homosociability and heterosexuality. These address such factors as the organizational locker room sexual and heterosexual spaces at work and the construction of women and men as different workers. This conceptual model is crucial for evaluating the mechanisms that support male dominance among highly skilled professionals and executives.
