Media Under Pressure Al Jazeera Toeing The Red Lines:

Media Under Pressure Olivia Qusaibaty, 2006-08-01 Timely research and analysis on the controversial pan Arab news channel Translation and News Making in Contemporary Arabic Television Ali Darwish, 2010 Social Semiotics of Arabic Satellite Television Ali Darwish, 2009 Arabic satellite television is a phenomenon that has swept the Arab world in less than two decades and is said to have dramatically changed the Arab region It has created a world of contrasts and contradictions between tradition and liberalism and a polarization of views and opinions all vying for dominance and control This book examines the social semiotics of Arabic satellite television and studies the multimodal representations of Arab social and cultural values and their implied meanings in a communication medium that heavily relies on imported western models The Middle East, Abstracts and Index, 2003 The Al Jazeera Effect Philip M. Seib, 2008 The battle for hearts and minds in the Middle East is being fought not on the streets of Baghdad but on the newscasts and talk shows of Al Jazeera The future of China is being shaped not by Communist Party bureaucrats but by bloggers working quietly in cyber cafes The next attacks by al Qaeda will emerge not from Osama bin Laden's cave but from cells around the world connected by the Internet In these and many other instances traditional ways of reshaping global politics have been superseded by the influence of new media satellite television the Internet and other high tech tools What is involved is more than a refinement of established practices We are seeing a comprehensive reconnecting of the global village and a reshaping of how the world works Al Jazeera is a paradigm of new media's influence Ten years ago there was much talk about the CNN effect the theory that news coverage especially gripping visual storytelling was influencing foreign policy throughout the world Today the Al Jazeera effect takes that a significant step further The concept encompasses the use of new media as tools in every aspect of global affairs ranging from democratization to terrorism and including the concept of virtual states The media are no longer just the media They have a larger popular base than ever before and as a result have unprecedented impact on international politics The media can be tools of conflict and instruments of peace they can make traditional borders irrelevant and unify peoples scattered across the globe This phenomenon the Al Jazeera effect is reshaping the world The Al Jazeera Phenomenon Mohamed Zayani, 2005 Few phenomena in the Arab world are more controversial than Al Jazeera the satellite television news channel that despite its brief history has made its impact known throughout the world and changed the face of a formerly parochial Arab media This timely collection of articles many by Arabic speaking scholars gives us more information and analysis of the network and how it has affected the public and even the foreign policies of Western governments than any other of the very few books published in English up to now The book provides rare insights into Al Jazeera's politics its agenda its programs its coverage of regional crises and its treatment of the West The authors attempt to gauge the station's impact on ordinary Arab viewers understand its effect on an increasingly visible Arab public sphere and map out the role it plays in regional Arab politics The image of Al Jazeera that emerges from this book is much more complex than its depiction in American media. It reveals the powerful role that the network plays in shaping ideas and reconstructing Arab identities during a crucial juncture in Middle Eastern history and politics.
