Survival of the Fit Daniel Fulham O'Neill, 2021 Young people in America are facing a health crisis of epidemic proportions yet no one is taking action. Children are born as active curious imaginative beings with a built in physical identity. Survival of the Fit offers a new and revelatory plan to nurture this identity and save the health of America's youngsters. One of the keys to this plan is rebranding physical education PE and making it available for every child every day in every year of school. In addition to establishing historical references and a scientific basis for this rebranding the author provides a downloadable template for PE classes at all school levels. He lays out a blueprint to help educators and parents bring this PE revolution to their school with no increase in the school budget. Sounding the alarm regarding America's health crisis. Survival of the Fit explains how we can use existing tools knowledge and infrastructure to make needed changes with immediate results for every school not just a privileged few. Everyone interested in seeing improvements in the physical mental and emotional health of our children will want to put this book to use. Book Features: Introduces the concept of physical identity an inborn trait that animals from octopi to humans are born with. Presents the reasoning for restoring youth competitive sports to community control even for high school students. Discusses how we can win the war against bad food and addiction to two dimensional entertainment. Showcases original research as well as comments and criticism from active educators. Daniel Fulham O'Neill MD EdD is board certified in orthopedic surgery and sports medicine and holds a doctorate in Exercise and Sport Psychology.

Relics of the Cosmic Inflationary Period Robert Steven, 2010-10-14 As always I'm feeling a bit nervous but I couldn't help but say a few words. Although I still don't know what to say haha I'll just write it down and see. My last book ended in February and it took more than four months before I started a new one. I remember saying when I finished the last one that I would start a new book in April or at the latest May but I couldn't do that. I'm sorry.
