Booktok Trending Vs:

Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30 This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries

Postliterary Attention Theory: Reading,

Fragmentation, and Meaning in the Digital Age Shaikh Afnan Birahim, 2025-09-22 Postliterary Attention Theory: Reading, Fragmentation and Meaning in the Digital Age explores how our ability to read deeply has eroded in an era dominated by feeds, fragments and dopamine-driven design. Blending literary history, media theory and cognitive science, Shaikh Afnan Birahim traces the journey from modernist experimentation to TikTok snippets, showing how attention itself has become a cultural battleground. This book is both diagnosis and manifesto, an invitation to reclaim slow reading as an act of resistance and rediscover the joy, intimacy and meaning that only literature can provide

Child as Citizen Giuliana Fenech, 2025-08-15

Contributions by Daniela Brockdorff, Nina Christensen, Jill Coste, Katrin Dautel, Justyna Deszcz, Tryhubczak, Giuliana Fenech, Naomi Hamer, Irena Barbara Kalla, Anne Klomberg, Sonali Kulkarni, Elizabeth Leach, Leung Ann Marie, Murnaghan, Emily Murphy, Emilie Owens, Nicola Parker, Patrycja Poniatowska, Meg Rosoff, and Farriba Schulz. Child as Citizen: Agency and Activism in Children's Literature and Culture addresses children's and young adult agency and activism across literature and culture, demonstrating how these forces influence child citizenship. Contributors to this volume highlight the agentic voices and activist practices that are growing across all spheres of young people's lives, as well as the challenges to active citizenship that children growing up in unjust sociopolitical contexts face. The volume is interdisciplinary and draws on the sociology of childhood, children's literature studies, youth culture studies, media technology and cultural studies, and Anthropocene, ecofeminist and disability studies. Agency occurs in and around literature and storytelling, and this collection establishes how it is always influenced by identity as well as geopolitics. How it is both subjective and collective, how it is cultural and embodied, and how like citizenship it is not a static status but rather an ongoing negotiation. In this collection, contributors invite readers to consider agency as a system of relations between children, themselves, between children and

adults children and institutions and children and nation states as well as between children and the nonhuman This book reviews the interconnectedness between these relationships and attempts to untangle some of the complications that emerge

The Business of Being a Writer, Second Edition Jane Friedman,2025-04-18 A thoroughly revised edition of the comprehensive guide to building and maintaining a successful career in writing Writers talk about their work in many ways as an art as a calling as a lifestyle Too often missing from these conversations is the fact that writing is also a business and those who want to make a living from their writing must understand the basic business principles underlying the industry The Business of Being a Writer offers the business education writers need but so rarely receive Jane Friedman is one of today's leading experts on the publishing industry Through her website social media presence online courses email newsletters and other media she helps writers understand how to navigate the industry with confidence and intentionality This book advises writers on how to build a platform in a way that aligns with their values how to spot critical mindset issues that might sabotage their efforts before they even begin how to publish strategically and what it means to diversify income streams beyond book sales For this second edition Friedman has updated every topic to reflect how the industry has evolved over the past half decade New features include a section on business and legal issues commonly faced by writers exercises at the end of each chapter and a wealth of sample materials posted on a companion website Reaching beyond the mechanical aspects of publishing The Business of Being a Writer will help both new and experienced writers approach their careers with the same creative spirit as their writing Friedman is encouraging without sugarcoating reality blending years of research with practical advice that will help writers market themselves and maximize their writing related income Her book will leave them empowered confident and ready to turn their craft into a sustainable career

The Reading Lives of Teens Chin Ee Loh,2024-11-04 In these changing times of global flows of media and technologies and reports of declining reading enjoyment researchers policymakers and educators need to engage anew with essential issues of what counts as reading what kinds of reading matter and how to support teen reading engagement in school and out of school settings Bringing together contributions from well known and emerging adolescent literacy researchers from different disciplinary perspectives this edited collection consolidates contemporary research on teens volitional print and digital reading whether in school or out of school contexts The first part of the book offers overviews of what teens are reading followed by chapters on community support on reading and new ways of researching teen reading With chapters from North America Europe Australia Asia and the Middle East the collection will offer multifaceted and complex insights into what how and why teens read in different contexts Reflection questions at the end of each chapter encourage readers to consider how the research can be applied in their own research policy and practice contexts This book will be of interest to researchers policymakers and educators who are invested in supporting adolescent engaged reading with evidence based policies and strategies
