Speak Freely Keith E. Whittington, 2019-02-26 Why colleges and universities live or die by free speech Free speech is under attack at colleges and universities today as critics on and off campus challenge the value of freewheeling debate In Speak Freely Keith Whittington argues that universities must protect and encourage vigorous free speech because it goes to the heart of their mission to foster freedom of thought ideological diversity and tolerance Examining hot button issues such as trigger warnings safe spaces hate speech disruptive protests speaker disinvitations and the use of social media by faculty Speak Freely describes the dangers of empowering campus censors to limit speech and enforce orthodoxy It explains why universities must make space for voices from both the Left and Right And it points out how better understanding why the university lives or dies by free speech can help guide students faculty administrators and alumni when faced with unpopular hateful or dangerous speech Timely and vitally important Speak Freely shows why universities can succeed only by fostering more free speech more free thought and a greater tolerance for both initiative that changed the face of global research This is the story of open access publishing why it matters now and for the future In a world where information has never been so accessible and answers are available at the touch of a fingertip we are hungrier for the facts than ever before something the Covid 19 crisis has brought to light And yet paywalls put in place by multi billion dollar publishing houses are still preventing millions from accessing quality scientific knowledge and public trust in science is under threat On 4 September 2018 a bold new initiative known as Plan S was unveiled kickstarting a world wide shift in attitudes towards open access research For the first time funding agencies across continents joined forces to impose new rules on the publication of research with the aim of one day making all research free and available to all What followed was a debate of global proportions as stakeholders asked Who has the right to access publicly funded research Will it ever be possible to enforce change on a multi billion dollar market dominated by five major players Here the scheme's founder
