A Collection of Papers on Self-study and Institutional Improvement: Organizational effectiveness and future directions ,2003 New Directions for Institutional Research ,2000 Technology in Student Affairs: Supporting Student Learning and Services Kevin Kruger,2005 The literature and research on the use of technology in student affairs is still very limited This volume of New Direction for Student Services was written to increase our understanding of the role of technology in the student learning experience of campus based and as well as distance learners Information technology has become a central tool in creating 24 7 self service experiences for students interacting with campus administrative functions Recent technologies also create the real possibility of moving beyond administrative functions to playing a central role in student learning community development and student development This volume monograph attempts to capture the current thinking around the use of technology in student affairs It is not a review of the actual technologies in use in student affairs The pace of change is so fast that such a treatment would make the writing out of date within two years In that light this volume focuses less on the technology and more on the ways in which the technology is altering the organization of student affairs the ways in which the lines between campus based students and distance learners are blurring and the increasing role technology is playing in student learning Scholarship of Multicultural Teaching and Learning Matthew Kaplan,A. T. Miller,2007-10

The desire to continue a quest for multiculturalism in postsecondary education burns bright on campuses across the country New legal decision have made it possible for institutions to once again pursue a diverse student population at public universities As before faculty and administrators are searching for new and effective ways of infusing multicultural instruction into the everyday life of the institution This issue provides some very important innovative suggestions to support their quest Series editor Promoting Student Success in the Community College Steven R. Helfgot,Marguerite McGann Culp,1995-05-25

Assessing Student Learning and Development Marilee J. Bresciani,Carrie L. Zelna,James A. Anderson,2004 This book documents the importance of assessing student learning and provides student affairs professionals with specific techniques ideas and examples for assessing student learning and development in academic and student support services Studying Diverse Institutions: Contexts, Challenges, and Considerations M. Christopher Brown,Jason E. Lane,2003-07-05 This volume examines the contextual and methodological issues pertaining to studying diverse institutions and provides effective and useful approaches for higher education administrators institutional researchers and planners policymakers and faculty seeking to better understand students in postsecondary education It also offers guidelines to asking the right research questions employing the appropriate research design and methods and analyzing the data with respect to the unique context of colleges and universities Information Literacy: One Key to Education Margit Misangyi Watts,2008-07-08 This issue draws on the expertise of librarians and faculty to highlight the central role of information literacy in higher education The authors show how approaches to information literacy can be used to engage undergraduates in research and creative scholarship The articles clarify definitions of information literacy and illustrate various means of curricular integration Reforming the Undergraduate Experience

Librarians as Agents of Change Working with Curriculum Committees Using Change Agency Theory Global Educational Goals Technology and Information Literacy in Higher Education Information Literacy and Its Relationship to Cognitive Development and Reflective Judgment Information Literacy and First Year Students Effective Librarian and Discipline Faculty Collaboration Models for Integrating Information Literacy into the Fabric of an Academic Institution Dynamic Purposeful Learning in Information Literacy College Student Engagement Surveys Implications for Information Literacy Students regularly miss the relationship between the information seeking process and the actual creation of knowledge The authors in this issue support infusing the undergraduate curriculum with research based learning to facilitate students ability to define research for themselves Most importantly this volume argues students information literacy leads beyond finding information it actually involves their creating knowledge This is the 114th volumes of the Jossey Bass quarterly higher education report series New Directions for Teaching and Learning which continues to offer a comprehensive range of ideas and techniques for improving college teaching based on the experience of seasoned instructors and on the latest findings of educational and psychological researchers Assessing Character Outcomes in College Jon C. Dalton, Terrance R.

Russell, Sally Kline, 2004-10-06 The authors examine several perspectives on the role of colleges and universities in developing student character and illustrate different approaches to defining and assessing character outcomes in the higher education setting. This is the 122nd volume in the Jossey Bass higher education report New Directions for Institutional Research.

Student Affairs and External Relations Mary Beth Snyder, 2002 Building positive relations with external constituents is as important in student affairs work as it is in any other university or college division. This issue is a long overdue resource of ideas, strategies, and information aimed at making student affairs leaders more effective in their interactions with important off campus partners, supporters, and agencies. Editor Mary Beth Snyder, vice president for student affairs at Oakland University in Michigan, and chapter authors explore the current challenges facing the student services profession as well as the emerging opportunities worthy of student affairs interest. C. Gary Grace, executive director and dean of the University Center of Lake County in Lincolnshire, Illinois, provides a general introduction to the growth of external partnerships in student affairs work and the role public expectations play in that change. Russell P. Bumba, Jr., senior manager for student services for the South Carolina Technical College System, takes a comprehensive look at the historical development of state oversight of higher education. He illustrates the relevance of state coordinating boards for student affairs professionals at both public and private institutions. Changing public expectations of the campus experience demands a fresh approach to long established campus partnerships. Ted Montgomery, director of media relations at Oakland University in Michigan, joins the editor in a frank discussion on building and maintaining excellent media interactions. James E. Moore, assistant vice president for student services at Creighton University in Omaha, Nebraska, argues that student affairs staff should be firmly involved in their institution's decisions on outsourcing of services. He examines the ways that corporate outsourcing should and can add value to student life. Tara Singer, former assistant vice president for alumni relations at the University of Louisville, and Aaron W. Hughey, professor of counseling and student affairs in the College of Education and Behavioral Science at Western Kentucky University, provide concrete suggestions on how student affairs staff can forge effective connections with alumni associations. Partnerships that reach out to the community providing extracurricular learning and career development are also explored. Gary L. McGrath, dean of student affairs at Arizona State University East, highlights the evolving nature of our institutional partnerships with the corporate sector and the many benefits that accrue to students and employers in positive relationships. Northern Michigan University Student Activities and Leadership Programs faculty and staff members David L. Bonsall, Rachel A. Harris, and Jill N. Marczak, describe the success of developing a student leadership program that has been integrated into the surrounding campus community. Finally, measuring the success of student programs is also an opportunity for building external partnerships Marilee J Bresciani director of assessment for the division of undergraduate affairs presents an analysis of the extent to which student affairs currently uses external firms to assist in the assessment of student learning and development and provides guidelines on where and when to seek outside help Emphasizing the breadth and complexity of external partnerships relationships and the importance of managing them well on all campuses this volume is a valuable and timely resources for student affairs professionals participating in their institution s outsourcing strategies

Linking Adults with Community: Promoting Civic Engagement Through Community Based Learning Susan C. Reed,Catherine Marienau,2008-07-15 Employing community based learning with adults presents unique challenges and opportunities it requires an analysis of the adult learning literature as well as identification of service learning practices that will be effective with adults In this volume drawing upon adult learning and service learning literature and case studies scholars and practitioners articulate best practices in community based adult learning and illustrate its implementation Adults are increasingly called upon to become involved in the body politic Strengthening their communities promoting change enlivening our democracy Competing with the call for civic engagement are the demanding priorities of modern life that adults face in the workplace at home and in their community In community based learning universities partner with local organizations and nonprofits to provide experiences that promote the growth and development of both students and community residents Careful project design is crucial to the accomplishment of these laudable outcomes This volume provides a valuable guide to service learning professionals meeting these challenges This is the 118th volume in the Jossey Bass quarterly report series New Directions for Adult and Continuing Education an indispensable series that explores issues of common interest to instructors administrators counselors and policymakers in a broad range of adult and continuing education settings such as colleges and universities extension programs businesses libraries and museums

The Small College Dean Sarah B. Westfall,2006 This volume speaks to the work of deans at small colleges by addressing the history and diversity of small colleges and the role of the dean describing the realities of organizing and staffing a student affairs division at a small college identifying the differences between the role of vice president and the role of dean in small colleges providing examples of effective academic affairs and student affairs partnerships in small college settings thoroughly examining the rewards and challenges of being a senior student affairs officer at a small college Along with providing a focus on the work of senior student affairs officers in small colleges this volume gives useful information to those interested in working in a small college environment The Small College Dean was created in part to fill the considerable gap in literature concerning this subject matter and the hope is that this volume will spur further research on the experience of student affairs professionals in small college settings This is the 116th volume of New Directions for Student Services a quarterly journal published by Jossey Bass Click here to view the entire list of titles for New Directions for Student Services

Managing for Innovation Theodore S. Glickman,Susan C. White,2007-06-29

Innovation can offer flexibility that enables institutions to adapt more readily in a constantly changing environment. It is a means by which colleges and universities can address concerns typically associated with mature enterprises: create tools to ease increasing cost pressures and gain efficiency through better operations and better matching of resources and requirements. How best to foster innovations through supportive management is a central topic of this volume. This is the 137th volume of the quarterly report series New Directions for Higher Education The Role of the Classroom in College Student Persistence John M. Braxton, 2008-10-13. This issue of New Directions for Teaching and Learning brings into sharp focus the complex role college and university faculty play in shaping the persistence and departure decisions of undergraduate students. The authors review practices ranging from curricular structures and instructional staffing policies to faculty teaching methods and they offer recommendations for many common problems. Taken together the chapters outline the elements of a scholarship of practice centered on keeping students in school. College and university presidents, chief academic affairs officers, academic deans, directors and staff members of campus based centers for teaching and individuals responsible for enrollment management will find a great deal of practical wisdom in this volume. Journal of College Student Development, 2000 Powerful Programming for Student Learning: Approaches That Make a Difference Debora L. Liddell, Jon P. Lund, 2000-07-04. Over the past four decades programming has continued to be a viable strategy for transmitting knowledge, affecting skills development, changing attitudes and helping students reach their potential both on and off campus. This volume will assist student affairs professionals as they plan, implement and evaluate their educational interventions on college and university campuses. From planning a lunchtime seminar to conducting a semester long support group this sourcebook will provide readers with guidance on implementing programming that is powerful, relevant and focused on learning. The contributors detail each step of program assessment, planning, implementation and outcome evaluation. They explain the importance of collaborating with faculty and others illustrating several types of programming partnerships with four brief case studies and examine the significant partnership aspects that led to programming success. The contributors also explore two of today's most relevant programming topics: multicultural competence and sexual violence and provide an overview of a number of promising programs covering such areas as service learning, leadership, community building, alcohol awareness and diversity. This is the 90th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Student Services.

Report of the National Commission to Review the Working of the Constitution India. National Commission to Review the Working of the Constitution, 2002. With reference to Indian Constitution Higher Education in the United States [2 volumes] James J. F. Forest, Kevin Kinser, 2002. Surveys the changing landscape of American higher education from academic freedom to virtual universities from campus crime to Pell Grants from the Student Privacy Act to student diversity. In the years following World War II college and university enrollment doubled, students revolted, faculty unionized and community colleges evolved. Tuition and technology soared as did the number of first generation, minority and women students. These changes radically transformed the American system of postsecondary education Today that system is in trouble Its aging professoriate prepares for retirement but low academic salaries can no longer attract the best minds to replace them A flood of corporate dollars funds commercial research but money for basic research the seedbed of American scientific preeminence has dried up Colleges and universities also face heated competition with for profit education providers for students faculty and external financial support along with the costs of providing remedial education to growing numbers of students who are unprepared for postsecondary education Higher Education in the United States provides a comprehensive analysis of these issues and others that scholars and practitioners of higher education study discuss and grapple with on a daily basis More than 200 entries from more than 150 higher education scholars and experts around the country An extensive bibliography to guide further study including research studies and websites An annotated chronology of important events in higher education from 1940 to the present Detailed reviews of 42 important books on higher education arranged chronologically
