Ticking Clock Ira Rosen, 2021-02-16 Two time Peabody Award winning writer and producer Ira Rosen reveals the intimate untold stories of his decades at America's most iconic news show It's a 60 Minutes story on 60 Minutes itself When producer Ira Rosen walked into the 60 Minutes offices in June 1980 he knew he was about to enter television history His career catapulted him to the heights of TV journalism breaking some of the most important stories in TV news But behind the scenes was a war room of clashing producers anchors and the most formidable 60 Minutes figure legendary correspondent Mike Wallace Based on decades of access and experience Ira Rosen takes readers behind closed doors to offer an incisive look at the show that invented TV investigative journalism With surprising humor charm and an eye for colorful detail Rosen delivers an authoritative account of the unforgettable personalities that battled for prestige credit and the desire to scoop everyone else in the game As one of Mike Wallace's top producers Rosen reveals the interview secrets that made Wallace's work legendary and the flaring temper that made him infamous Later as senior producer of ABC News Primetime Live and 20/20 Rosen exposes the competitive environment among famous colleagues like Diane Sawyer and Barbara Walters and the power plays between correspondents Chris Wallace Anderson Cooper and Chris Cuomo A master class in how TV news is made Rosen shows readers how 60 Minutes puts together a story when sources are explosive unreliable and even dangerous From unearthing shocking revelations from inside the Trump White House to an outrageous proposition from Ghislaine Maxwell to interviewing gangsters Joe Bonanno and John Gotti Jr Ira Rosen was behind the scenes of some of 60 Minutes most sensational stories Highly entertaining dishy and unforgettable Ticking Clock is a never before told account of the most successful news show in American history The Dark Side of News Fixing Syed Irfan Ashraf, 2021-11-02 This book provides a local journalist's perspective on a four decade long regional contribution to global news production It shows how the fixers risky news pursuits made possible for global media to access distant regions and dangerous caves on Pakistan and Afghanistan borders causing unprecedented deaths of the local reporters in the context of the U S led war on terror The book analyzes the fixer as a role in its relationship with militarization It is not a coincidence that fixers become valuable to commercial media only during the height of violence or crises Emerging under conditions of scarcity or war the value of this role in turn is intrinsically tied to the fear of extinction It is this vulnerability or perceived expendability imposed by the need to find work that binds fixers in a symbiotic relationship with global market and global war This book then serves as a vantage point from which one can clearly see the connection between the regional wars and commercial media as well as local journalists transformation into daily wage earners in a global media shift toward neoliberalism
