Kwok-bun Chan,Wai-wan Vivien Chan,2021-01-07 This insightful volume explores the experiences of ethnic migrants returning to Hong Kong Singapore and Israel Return migrants who were exposed to the western culture and society undergo personal transformations that significantly impact their views on values such as gender individualism democracy tradition and individual autonomy To evaluate how well these individuals are able to reintegrate back into their native countries the authors conducted a thorough comparative study between returnees in the three research sites through in depth interviews ethnographic fieldwork and analyses of government policies Among the topics discussed Family as a strategic middle ground between the individual and society The social psychology of coping and adaptation Public outer historical and macro forces that shape returnees experiences Comparisons and contrasts between two primarily Chinese societies along with one racially and culturally different Western society Cost and benefit analyses of decision making in migration Return Migrants in Hong Kong Singapore and Israel is a compelling new perspective on the migrant experience drawn from in depth research on returnees across three countries and a variety of circumstances

The Performance of Asian Higher Education Gwilym

Croucher,Chuanyi Wang,Jiale Yang,2022-07-28 With contributions from several Asia Pacific countries this book compares performance and productivity in higher education from the perspective of institutional change Using multiple methods and datasets and including case studies from Australia Cambodia China Malaysia India and Japan the authors focus on shedding light on the efficacy of institutional policies and reforms The worldwide Gross Enrolment Ratio GER in higher education neared 40 per cent in 2020 due to the dramatic increase in enrolments in many developing economies especially in Asia This significant increase in the number of students in higher education brings great benefits but requires major ongoing investment by governments around the world This growth has followed waves of internationalization and marketization and universities are undergoing substantial change in their organization and character The goal of many institutional policies and reforms has been better performance and higher productivity Yet little is known about whether they have achieved this aim Students government officials and university leaders all have the right to ask whether the outcomes of higher education justify the costs of running the system Although increasing attention has been paid to higher education institutions management and operation the study of higher education performance and productivity is still in its relative infancy compared to other enterprises Written for students and scholars interested in higher education management and productivity this book will also appeal to government officials and university leaders keen to know more about institutional reform and how to achieve better performance The University and the Economy Aldo Geuna,Federica Rossi,2015-02-27 This book provides readers with an in depth understanding of the many ways in which universities contribute to economic development and growth It demonstrates the causal interactions between universities activities and economic outcomes and presents
