Overview National Development Information Empowerment:

Introduction to Public Librarianship, Third Edition Kathleen de la Pena McCook, Jenny S. Bossaller, Felton Thomas Jr., 2018-12-18 Put simply there is no text about public librarianship more rigorous or comprehensive than McCook's survey. Now the REFORMA Lifetime Achievement Award winning author has teamed up with noted public library scholar and advocate Bossaller to update and expand her work to incorporate the field's renewed emphasis on outcomes and transformation. This essential tool Library Journal remains the definitive handbook on this branch of the profession. It covers every aspect of the public library from its earliest history through its current incarnation on the cutting edge of the information environment including statistics, standards, planning, evaluations and results, legal issues, funding and politics, organization, administration and staffing, all aspects of library technology from structure and infrastructure to websites and makerspaces, adult services, youth services and children's services, associations, state library agencies and other professional organizations, global perspectives on public libraries and advocacy, outreach and human rights. Exhaustively researched and expansive in its scope, this benchmark text continues to serve both LIS students and working professionals.

Financial Empowerment of Tribal Women Through Entrepreneurship Development in India Dr. Vijay Kumar Sahu, Prof. (Dr.) Sukanta Kumar Baral, 2025-04-12 This book explores the role of entrepreneurship in empowering tribal women financially and socially in India. It examines their challenges including access to credit market opportunities and skill development. The book discusses government initiatives, policy frameworks and the role of non-governmental organizations in fostering an inclusive entrepreneurial ecosystem. By providing valuable insights, case studies and strategic recommendations, this book is a vital resource for researchers, policymakers and development practitioners working toward sustainable economic empowerment of tribal women.

Empowering India Through Digital Literacy (Vol. 1) Dr. R. Babu, Dr. S. Kalaivani & Dr. K. Saileela, 2019-04-26 Traditionally, education is centered on sources such as schools, teachers and print media. The learners reached the information sources by enrolling with schools, teachers and libraries. Prior to the digital era, information was not accessible by the majority of people and even those accessed were unable to obtain current information with respect to today's context. The modern society wants to know the information as it happens and when it happens, and the world is moving from an information society to a knowledge society. Thus, education is given the highest priority and brainpower is becoming the most valuable asset of an organization. Advances in digital technology have opened up many avenues of learning. Technology has made information accessible transmittable from anywhere and by to all groups of people. The higher education landscape is changing rapidly, challenging academic professionals to think critically about their roles in the field.

Transforming Government and Empowering Communities Nagy Hanna, 2008 A case study of why and how national e-leadership institutions, e-government and e-society programs were designed and implemented. The book examines the process of building national ICT institutions, showing how to design and implement an integrated e-government program. The book describes how a fund was developed to promote grassroots innovations that leverage ICT to solve problems of rural development and poverty The book proposes national e strategies be grounded in an integrated framework and institutional mechanisms that would exploit synergies and interdependencies among the different e

Women's Empowerment for Sustainability in Africa Robert Dibie,2019-01-17 This book uses an open explorative approach to deal with the different aspects of gender discrimination and gender empowerment policies as well as their impact on economic development and capacity building in several African countries It uses primary and secondary data to present the argument that without the full input of women sustainable development will not be achieved in many African countries This book is the first text written by knowledgeable gender issue experts that understand the culture of and lived and conducted research in Africa It provides many examples of the relationships between gender and economic development around the African continent highlighting different processes and practices As such the contributors here illustrate the impact of weak gender policies and the ability to adequately develop female capacity building that could lead to wide spread sustainable economic growth in Africa They also explore a wide range of new dimensions and variables that are commonly ignored by other text books on gender equality The book will help graduate undergraduate students and other readers to understand women s policies in the past present and future by analysing and illustrating cultural political and socio historical contexts which have shaped women s role in the economic and sustainable development of Africa
