North Korea, Iran and the Challenge to International Order Patrick McEachern,Jaclyn O'Brien McEachern,2017-08-23 This book examines and compares the political situations in North Korea and Iran and the contemporary security challenges posed by their illicit nuclear aspirations While government officials including a series of American presidents strategic policy documents and outside analysts have repeatedly noted that North Korea and Iran occupy a similar challenge the commonality has largely been left unexplored This book argues that North Korea and Iran are uniquely common in the world today in their illicit nuclear aspirations in violation of their legal commitments made under the Non Proliferation Treaty The work evaluates alternative arguments some of which sustain that the two states should be grouped together based on other metrics such as nuclear powers that sponsor terrorist organizations or nuclear states that violate human rights and find alternative explanations do not hold up to empirical scrutiny Drawing on newly declassified documents and Iranian and North Korean sources the book provides a comprehensive and comparative assessment of the two states social historical economic and domestic political structures and situation to make these determinations Furthermore it reviews the nuclear issue stemming from Iran and North Korea and the efforts to constrain these programs The book concludes with specific policy recommendations that apply diplomatic lessons learned from dealing with Iran to North Korea and vice versa This book will be of interest to students of nuclear proliferation international security foreign policy and International Relations

Engaging North Korea Lam Peng Er, 2024-09-16 This book presents a comprehensive overview of international attempts to engage North Korea diplomatically with the aim of avoiding a nuclear war It highlights the difficulty of this task concluding that the containment of North Korea currently depends more on military deterrence than on diplomatic restraint It considers the various multilateral attempts at diplomatic engagement over recent decades and explores the different approaches of different countries examining the domestic factors and the strategic interests which drive different countries different approaches It includes an account of China's growing estrangement Russia's increasing closeness and the surprising relationship between North Korea and Sweden which has been effective in providing the North Korean people with humanitarian aid Revealing the story of diplomatic frustrations and failures when engaging North Korea this book will appeal to students and scholars of Korean studies Asian politics and international relations
