North With Doc Volume Four:

The Vietnam War and International Law, Volume 4 Richard A. Falk, 2015-03-08 This concluding volume of The Vietnam War and International Law focuses on the last stages of America's combat role in Indochina. The articles in the first section deal with general aspects of the relationship of international law to the Indochina War. Sections II and III are concerned with the adequacy of the laws of war under modern conditions of combat and with related questions of individual responsibility for the violation of such laws. Section IV deals with some of the procedural issues related to the negotiated settlement of the war. The materials in Section V seek to reappraise the relationship between the constitutional structure of the United States and the way in which the war was conducted while the final section presents the major documents pertaining to the end of American combat involvement in Indochina. A supplement takes account of the surrender of South Vietnam in spring 1975. Contributors to the volume: lawyers, scholars, and government officials include Dean Rusk, Eugene V. Rostow, Richard A. Falk, John Norton Moore, and Richard Wasserstrom. Originally published in 1976, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. United States Government Publications Monthly Catalogue J. H. Hickcox, 1888 The Popes on Air Raffaella Perin, 2024-04-16 The story of the origin of Vatican Radio provides a unique look at the history of World War II. The book offers the first wide ranging study on the history of Vatican Radio from its origins 1931 to the end of Pius XII's pontificate 1958 based on unpublished sources. The opening of the Secret Vatican Archives on the records regarding Pius XII will shed light on the most controversial pontificate of the 20th century. Moreover, the recent rearrangement of the Vatican media provided the creation of a multimedia archive that is still in fieri. This research is an original point of view on the most relevant questions concerning these decades: the relation of the Catholic Church with the Fascist regimes and Western democracies; the attitude toward anti-Semitism and the Shoah in Europe and in general toward the total war; the relationship of the Holy See with the new media in the mass society; the questions arisen in the after war period such as the Christian Democratic Party in Italy; the new role of women and anti-communism and the competition for the consensus in the social and moral order in a secularized society.
