Old Put Patriot Classic Reprint:

"Old Put" the Patriot Frederick A. Ober, 2018-06-28 Old Put The Patriot Frederick A Ober as rapidly as possible his flocks and herds of live stock His chief perhaps his only assistant in these earlier labors was a negro servant who figures though not greatly to his credit in the narration of an adventure in which his master took part about two years after his arrival in Connecticut This of course is that famous encounter with the wolf which has since become part and parcel not only of local tradition but of American history As many generations have been familiar with this story as related in story books and primers particularly during the early part of the nineteenth century it will now be told in the language of a contemporary Colonel David Humphrey who was an aide de camp to General Putnam and also to General Washington during the Revolutionary War and who wrote the first and best biography of our hero which was published in his lifetime The first years on a new farm are not exempt from disasters and disappointments which can only be remedied by stubborn and patient indu We are delighted to publish this classic book as part of our extensive Classic Library collection Many of the books in our collection have been out of print for decades and therefore have not been accessible to the general public The aim of our publishing program is to facilitate rapid access to this vast reservoir of literature and our view is that this is a significant literary work which deserves to be brought back into print after many decades The contents of the vast majority of titles in the Classic Library have been scanned from the original works To ensure a high quality product each title has been meticulously hand curated by our staff Our philosophy has been guided by a desire to provide the reader with a book that is as close as possible to ownership of the original work We hope that you will enjoy this wonderful classic work and that for you it becomes an enriching experience

The Works of Victor Hugo (Classic Reprint) Victor Hugo, 2017-10-18 Excerpt from The Works of Victor Hugo These Greek capitals black with age and quite deeply graven in the stone with I know not what signs peculiar to Gothic caligraphy imprinted upon their forms and upon their attitudes as though with the purpose of revealing that it had been a hand of the Middle Ages which had inscribed them there and especially the fatal and melancholy meaning contained in them struck the author deeply He questioned himself he sought to divine who could have been that soul in torment which had not been willing to quit this world without leaving this stigma of crime or unhappi ness upon the brow of the ancient church About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books
