C. Biswas, 1969 Reconstructing Nonviolence Roberto Baldoli, 2018-09-03 Nonviolent methods of action have been a powerful tool since the early twentieth century for social protest and revolutionary social and political change and there is diffuse awareness that nonviolence is an efficient spontaneous choice of movements individuals and whole nations Yet from a conceptual standpoint nonviolence struggles to engage with key contemporary political issues the role of religion in a post secular world the crisis of democracy and the use of supposedly nonviolent techniques for violent aims Drawing on classic thinkers and contemporary authors in particular the Italian philosopher Aldo Capitini this book shows that nonviolence is inherently a non systematic and flexible system with no pure immaculate thought at its core Instead at the core of nonviolence there is praxis which is impure because while it aims at freedom and plurality it is made of less than perfect actions performed in an imperfect environment by flawed individuals Offering a more progressive transformative and at the same time pluralistic concept of nonviolence this book is an original conceptual analysis of political theory which will appeal to students of international relations global politics security studies peace studies and democratic theory      To End War ,1982      Pacifism Robert L. Holmes,2016-12-15 In a world riven with conflict violence and war this book proposes a philosophical defense of pacifism It argues that there is a moral presumption against war and unless that presumption is defeated war is unjustified Leading philosopher of non violence Robert Holmes contends that neither just war theory nor the rationales for recent wars Vietnam the Gulf War the Iraq and Afghanistan Wars defeat that presumption hence that war in the modern world is morally unjustified A detailed comprehensive and elegantly argued text which guides both students and scholars through the main debates Just War Theory and double effect to name a few clearly but without oversimplifying the complexities of the issues or historical examples      The Political Theory of Non-violence John Colin Buhner,1963      The Politics of Nonviolent Action: The dynamics of nonviolent action Gene Sharp,1973 The Politics of Nonviolent Action is a major exploration of the nature of nonviolent struggle This unabridged edition is in three volumes Power and Struggle The Methods of Nonviolent Action and The Dynamics of Nonviolent Action The Dynamics of Nonviolent Action examines the complex operation of this technique against a violent repressive opponent      Theory and Practice of Gandhian Non-violence Ravindra Kumar,2002      Violence and Nonviolence Barry L. Gan,2013-08-08 Violence and Nonviolence an Introduction critiques five dominant societal views about violence and nonviolence Using evidence from scientific studies as well as anecdotal evidence and news reports esteemed scholar and editor Barry L Gan shows readers that these widely adopted and violent views are largely mistaken and require a fundamental rethinking and adjustment By synthesizing new research with old philosophies Gan introduces readers to an alternative paradigm of nonviolence through which we can begin to build a more peaceful world Nonviolent strategic action a kind of selective nonviolence is the first of the two alternative paradigms that provides a concrete approach to addressing social and political problems arising from violence Nonviolence as a way of life is the second of the paradigms that expands upon and in some respects critiques the first preferring a comprehensive and radical response to the scourges of violence that have plagued human history      To Nonviolent Political Science Glenn D. Paige,1993

Nonviolence in Theory and Practice ,1962      Social Theory and Practice ,2015-04      American Nonviolence Ira Chernus,2004 Most Americans can recite the names of famous generals and historic battles Some can also name champions of nonviolence like Martin Luther King Jr or recall the struggles for peace and justice that run like a thread through U S history But little attention is paid to the intellectual tradition of nonviolence Ira Chernus surveys the evolution of this powerful idea from the Colonial Era up to today focusing on representative movements Anabaptists Quakers Anarchists Progressives and key individuals Thoreau Reinhold Niebuhr Dorothy Day A J Muste King Barbara Deming including non Americans like Mohandas Gandhi and Thich Nhat Hanh who have helped form the idea of nonviolence in the United States American Nonviolence offers an essential guide for both students and activists
