Extended Curriculum Programmes Tennyson Mgutshini, 2022-04-30 The introduction of ECPs in South African Universities is seen by many as South Africa s key strategy for addressing the problem of poor patterns of student success and has its basis on the uncontested acceptance that an extended study duration may be necessary to bring some categories of learners to a level of parity with the readiness expectations of their course of study Even so this transformative strategic imperative has been plagued by a range of challenges that include poor systems readiness poor selection mechanisms in the identification of ECP students poor numeracy and literacy amongst students and indifferent teacher involvement in ECPs This volume offers a rare insight into many of the above recognised challenges and in so doing provides critical matter for thought for educators within the higher education sector

Teaching for Change L. Juliana Claassens, 2019-03-13 Contributors from various theological higher education institutions in South Africa and beyond come together to reflect on the best pedagogical practices to teach on often complex issues of gender sexual orientation race and class and on how they impact on health in our classrooms in our churches and in the communities where we live and work

Global Health Nursing in the 21st Century Suellen Breakey, Inge B. Corless, Nancy L. Meedzan, Patrice K. Nicholas, 2015-03-16 THE FIRST BOOK TO PRESENT THE SUCCESSES CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES OF GLOBAL HEALTH NURSING This text is designed specifically for nurses and nursing students who have an interest in global health as a specialty regardless of experience or education level It reflects both the unique contributions of the nursing profession and of other disciplines which is in keeping with the editors perspective on how to bring about lasting change The text views global health through a nursing lens but maintains this awareness and appreciation of interprofessionalism throughout The editors and contributors have firsthand experience of the complex dynamics in achieving global health and bring a wealth of knowledge to this important field which has grown as a course and specialty The text depicts the worldwide expansion of nursing partnerships between resource rich and

resource limited countries discusses challenges and obstacles and provides cases and guidance on how to achieve global health It will appeal to all nurses from student nurses embarking on a global health experience to more experienced global health nurses who offer professional nursing expertise from around the world The text responds to a recent WHO mandate which seeks the input of nurses and midwives as part of an interprofessional team of key strategists for facilitating global health The Lancet report is also an important document used throughout the text and an interview with Dr Julio Frenk author of that report is included Social political cultural economic and environmental factors including climate change are integrated into determinants of global health The text covers the foundations of global health including the emerging concept of climate justice the ethical context of global health and the importance of interprofessional education It addresses key issues of global health with a focus on poor and vulnerable individuals particularly women and children and those living in areas of conflict In addition to describing notable accomplishments toward achieving global health the book focuses on the need for increasing access to primary care improving clinical practice through expanded education and engaging interdisciplinary researchers in discovery of viable solutions The book includes the perspectives of nurses and colleagues from other disciplines in both resource rich and resource limited countries References provide resources for additional study and PowerPoint slides and a test bank for instructors accompany the text KEY FEATURES Case studies depict real world experiences Presents firsthand knowledge of global health dynamics challenges and opportunities Provides a wealth of information from multiple perspectives Authored by contributors across a variety of clinical and academic roles who are experienced in global health nursing and global health Includes chapters written by nurses from both resource limited and resource rich countries

Contingent Citizens Elizabeth Hull, 2020-05-27 Contingent Citizens examines the ambiguous state of South Africa's public sector workers and the implications for contemporary understandings of citizenship It takes us inside an ethnography of the professional ethic of nurses in a rural hospital in KwaZulu Natal shaped by a deep history of mission medicine and changing forms of new public management Liberal democratic principles of transparency decentralization and rights though promising freedom from control often generate fear and insecurity instead But despite the pressures they face Elizabeth Hull shows that nurses draw on a range of practices from international migration to new religious movements to assert new forms of citizenship Focusing an anthropological lens on professionalism Hull explores the major fault lines of South Africa's fragmented social landscape class gender race and religion to make an important contribution to the study of class formation and citizenship This prize winning monograph will be of interest to scholars of anthropology development studies sociology and global public health

Pioneers in KwaZulu/Natal - 1920-2000 Mazo Sybil T. Buthelezi, 2004 This book is about seven African nurse pioneers in KwaZulu Natal from 1920 to 2000 The author captures the early nursing activities of the 1920s to 1970 and then moves to nurses that entered the health services in the 1950s The author also presents two nurses that worked outside South Africa i.e. did their pioneering nursing in Saudi Arabia and the United States of America The author does not scoop nursing out of its context but creates a narrative that resonates in lived experiences in a world dominated by the Africanization of poverty the feminization of poverty globalization racism and xenophobia Publishers' International ISBN Directory/International ISBN Agency Sabine Behle, 1994 Global Telehealth 2014 Maurice Mars, Richard E. Scott, 2014-11-15 Although telehealth one component of ehealth continues to be implemented around the world sound evidence of its value to healthcare systems remains limited and the tipping point at which its universal adoption will be assured has yet to be reached On the other hand the spontaneous growth of mobile healthcare solutions and applications offered by smart phones have become more common amongst healthcare providers and the creation of Web based wellness promotion and health management tools has opened up a whole new area in which telehealth can provide future benefits This book presents selected full papers from Global Telehealth 2014 GT2014 held in Durban South Africa in November 2014 This was the third international conference in the series and this year's theme was Integrated Innovative Scalable and Sustainable Solutions emphasizing the importance of these aspects in achieving wider acceptance and adoption of ehealth and telehealth The book will be of interest to all those involved in the global telehealth community
