Jacobus Gideon (Kobus) Maree,2020-06-29 This book sets out to provide context for innovating counseling for self and career construction It gives readers insight into the theory underlying an innovative integrative qualitative quantitative approach to career counseling Three key ideas recur throughout the book First the idea of not dispensing advice to people instead enabling them to advise themselves Second the idea of listening for instead of to people s stories to help them choose and construct careers and themselves and shape their career identities Third the idea of helping people connect what they know about themselves consciously with what they are aware of subconsciously The book confronts some of the main challenges posed by Work 4 0 on the workplace but also foreshadows the imminent advent of Work 5 0 It endeavors to promote career counselors ability to help people thrive at a time when many speculate that work itself is at risk occupational contexts no longer hold workers in the way they used to and the coronavirus pandemic is disrupting the workplace Independent
