Obedience Struggle And Revolt:

Obedience, Struggle and Revolt David Hare, 2014-02-20 What is a political playwright Does theatre have any direct effect on society Why choose to work in a medium which speaks to so few Is theatre itself facing oblivion All frequent questions addressed to David Hare over the last thirty five years as his work has taken him from the travelling fringe to the National Theatre from seasons on Broadway to performances in prisons church halls and on bare floors Since 1978 Hare has sought uniquely to address these and other questions in occasional lectures given both in Britain and abroad Now for the first time these lectures are collected together with some of his more recent prose pieces about God Iraq Israel Palestine and the privatisation of the railways Bringing to the lectern the same wit insight and gift for the essential for which his plays are known Hare presents the distilled result of a lifetime's sustained thinking about art and politics The foremost theatrical chronicler of contemporary British life New York Times Our best writer of contemporary drama Sunday Times

Realism and Revolution Sandy Petrey, 2018-10-18 Sandy Petrey here looks at the emergence of nineteenth century French realism in the light of the concept of speech acts as defined by J L Austin and as exemplified by the history of the French Revolution Through analysis of the techniques of representation in works by Balzac Stendhal and Zola Petrey suggests that the expression of a truth depends on the same collective forces necessary to change a regime According to Petrey political legitimacy in the Revolution the Empire and the Restoration was established by means of a series of demonstrations that what words say cannot be interpreted without reference to the community to which they speak Petrey first discusses the creation of France's National Assembly in 1789 as a foundational example of how speech acts can bring about historical transformation He then challenges the most powerful twentieth century assault on realist aesthetics Roland Barthes's S/Z and also considers the views of such contemporary critics as Jacques Derrida Barbara Johnson and Stanley Fish During the Revolution Petrey says statements of truth were not descriptions of what was but rather exhortations to produce what was not Nineteenth century French fiction represents in literary form a similar collectively authorized linguistic performance the real in realism comes from representing facts not as they are in themselves but as they are produced and rejected in society In the course of illuminating readings of three central realist works Balzac's Pere Goriot Stendhal's The Red and the Black and Zola's Germinal Petrey takes the position that the dilemmas of representation far from being one of realism's blind spots figure among its major narrative subjects Old Goriot Honoré de Balzac, 1913 Literature in the Public Service C.
