Evaluation of the New York City Police Department Firearm Training and Firearm-Discharge Review Process Bernard D. Rostker, Lawrence M. Hanser, William M. Hix, Carl Jensen, Andrew R. Morral, 2008-06-09 In January 2007 New York City Police Commissioner Raymond W Kelly asked the RAND Corporation to examine the quality and completeness of the New York City Police Department's firearm training program and identify potential improvements in it and in the police department's firearm discharge review process. This monograph reports the observations, findings, and recommendations of that study.

Cole, Christopher E. Smith, 2004 This classic best seller commonly referred to as The Eagle encourages students to become better citizens to determine what Justice means in our society and what role individuals play. This text examines criminal justice as an interdisciplinary endeavor sharing elements from criminology, sociology, law, history, psychology, and political science. It challenges students to balance the mechanics and system of criminal justice with the human side of the story. Cole and Smith present an exciting and relevant introduction to the field of criminal justice. The text combines solid research and intellectual rigor in an approachable manner with detailed attention to current and compelling events to help students appreciate the many aspects of the discipline and how they can participate in the system as citizens of the United States.
