Broadcasting Baseball Eldon L. Ham,2011-07-29 There is a long standing relationship between broadcasting and sports and nowhere is this more evident than in the marriage of baseball and radio a slow sport perfectly suited to the word painting of broadcasters This work covers the development of the baseball broadcasting industry from the first telegraph reports of games in progress the influence of early pioneers at Pittsburgh s KDKA and Chicago s WGN including the first World Series broadcast the launch of the Telstar Satellite the Carlton Fisk homerun in the 1975 World Series which changed how baseball is broadcast through the latest computer graphics HD television and the Internet The New York Times Index ,1924 CVA Review ,1989 American Legion Baseball William E. Akin,2021-12-06 In the wake of the 1919 White Sox scandal and the suspension for life of eight players baseball saw a precipitous decline in popularity especially among America's youth To combat this a group of World War I veterans who were members of the newly formed American Legion created an organization to promote teenage interest in baseball Led by John L. Griffith who became the first commissioner of the Big Ten Conference the Legion undertook the revival of baseball In the 1920s and through the Great Depression and World War II Legion baseball grew steadily By 1950 it had become the principal training ground for major league players boasting at its peak more than 16 000 teams across the country Tracing the long history of this uniquely American institution this work details each year's American Legion World Series and the ups and downs of participation over nearly a century The American Monthly Review of Reviews ,1906 Moving Picture Review & Theatre Management ,1929
