Paddling The Boreal Forest Rediscovering A P Low:

Paddling the Boreal Forest Max Finkelstein, James Stone, 2004-11-29 The boreal forest of Quebec Labrador some of the most rugged and isolated land in Canada has captivated avid canoeists for generations In the latter 19th and early 20th centuries the intrepid A P Low of the Geological Survey of Canada spent in total more than ten years of his working life surveying the area Employing Aboriginal canoeists and guides he travelled by canoe snowshoe and sailing vessel to map and document much of this vast territory Challenged by the mystique of this extraordinary Canadian canoeists Max Finkelstein and James Stone retraced Low's routes by their admission their toughest canoe trip ever Using archival sources oral history and personal experience they tell the story of A P Low and in the process reveal the environmental issues now facing this much threatened Canadian wilderness Once again Max Finkelstein has blessed us with his incredible ability to make history of exploration come alive Rather than sit behind a desk and try to imagine the misadventures Low would have had he goes out and duplicates them and along the way creates a few tales of his own This is one great read and we should be thankful that people like Max and Jim Stone exist in this world of ours Kevin Callan well known author and canoeist From A P Low's logs and reports Max Finkelstein and Jim Stone give vitality to that great geological surveyor Interspersed are vivid accounts of their own challenging canoe voyages on the same rivers and portages of the boreal forest and rock in the James Bay Ungava Labrador country of the Cree Innu and Inuit What emerges is an eloquent testimonial for the wilderness canoe trip in the Canadian experience Bruce W Hodgins Emeritus Professor of History Trent University President Camp Wanapitei Member Advisory Council Canadian Canoe Museum

The Lure of Faraway Places Herb Pohl, 2007-05-11 The Lure of Faraway Places is the publication canoeist Herb Pohl 1930 2006 did not live to see published But Pohl's words and images provide a unique portrait of Canada by one who was happiest when travelling our northern waterways alone Austrian born Herb Pohl died at the mouth of the Michipicoten River on July 17 2006 He is remembered as Canada's most remarkable solo traveller While mourning their loss Herb Pohl's friends found to their surprise and delight a manuscript of wilderness writings on his desk in his lakeside apartment in Burlington Ontario He had hoped one day to publish his work as a book With help and commentary from best selling canoe author and editor James Raffan Natural Heritage is proud to present that book Herb's book The Lure of Faraway Places There's nothing like it in canoeing literature says Raffan It's part journal part memoir part wilderness philosophy and part tips and tricks of the most pragmatic kind written about parts of the country most of us will never see by the most committed and ambitious solo canoeist in Canadian history

Ships of Wood and Men of Iron Gerard Kenney, 2005-09-12 In the barren lands of Canada far north of the Arctic circle summers are quick and cool mere short interruptions in the true business of the polar regions winter Winters there can be dangerous with temperatures that plunge to awesome depths during the long lonely hours of Arctic darkness Powerful blizzards shriek across the land for days at a time causing all animal life to seek shelter from the cutting blast essentially putting a temporary end to normal activities of life such as travelling and eating It is an unforgiving land that does not easily suffer fools Over 100 years ago in June 1898 Captain Otto Sverdrup and 15 crewmen put out to sea aboard the schooner Fram from the Norwegian city today known as Oslo When they returned to Norway four years later they came back with a record of geographic and scientific discovery the richness of which is unparalleled in the annals of Arctic exploration The first section of this book is the story of those four heroic years spent in the High Arctic and their impact on Canadas subsequent efforts to ensure Canadian sovereignty in the area of the Norwegian discoveries The second section of the book deals with the Canadian Arctic expeditions between 1903 and 1948 led by intrepid men such as A P Low Joseph E Bernier Vilhjalmur Stefansson and Henry Larsen For anyone interested in the recent history of the Canadian North and why we even call it the Canadian North Ships of Wood and Men of Iron is a must read Kenney persuasively nominates a shortlist of new national heroes for a country badly in need of them Randy Boswell CanWest News Service In my view this book will be an important document about Canada Norway relations in the North especially considering the increased international emphasis now on circumpolar relations in the North Shirley Wolff Serafini Canadian Ambassador to Norway This book is a well deserved recognition of one of Norways most famous polar explorers and his invaluable contributions to the exploration and development of science in the Canadian Arctic Gerard Kenney s book also sheds an interesting new light on the history of the final settlement of Norways territorial claim of the Sverdrup Islands Ingvard Havnen former Norwegian Ambassador to Canada
