Firth,2023-11-15 After Hurricane Katrina in 2005 many high profile chefs in New Orleans pledged to help their city rebound from the flooding Several formed their own charitable organizations including the John Besh Foundation to help revitalize the region and its restaurant scene A year and a half after the disaster when the total number of open restaurants eclipsed the pre Katrina count it was embraced as a sign that the city itself had survived and these chefs arguably became the de facto heroes of the city s recovery Meanwhile food justice organizations tried to tap into the city s legendary food culture to fundraise marketing high end dining events that centered these celebrity chefs Jeanne K Firth documents the growth of celebrity humanitarianism viewing the phenomenon through the lens of feminist ethnography to understand how elite philanthropy is raced classed and gendered Firth finds that cultures of sexism in the restaurant industry also infuse chef led philanthropic initiatives As she examines this particular flavor of elite celebrity based philanthropy Firth illuminates the troubled relationships between consumerism food justice movements and public private partnerships in development and humanitarian aid Teaching the World to Shell Peas Rev. R. L. Phillips,2012-03 Surely God did not allow African Americans to experience oppression for over four hundred years just for us to dwell in an exclusive neighborhood acquire material possessions attain middle class status or be a famous black first African Americans are not in America to imitate our white brothers and sisters Our situation is unique We are insiders and outsiders Americans and of African descent free and unfree We are a split people seeking wholeness By bringing new insights into the life of African Americans Rev Phillips uses a number of case studies of his former high school students to reveal the severity of the split in the life of the students and their community at large He contends that if we do not attain true wholeness our unresolved conflicts would harm us psychologically and spiritually which in turn could detrimentally affect us socially politically and economically Many have already become hopeless and mentally challenged Our educational and social problems are troublesome Despite our progress in America many are still experiencing a meaningless life and are seeking answers How can one attain wholeness in a materialistic and black phobic world Rev Phillips takes us on an engaging journey to discover the answer Report New Zealand.
