program say supply chain management then the admissions committee will be more willing to accept people that don't have a perfect background but express interest in pursuing a supply chain career. Now there's a lot more that goes into the admissions decision such as essay quality, G.P.A., letters of recommendation and so on, but the point I want to get across is if you didn't have a stellar undergraduate record, didn't graduate from a well-known undergraduate program, didn't work in a Fortune 500 company for 5 years before applying to the MBA program, don't worry. If your goal is to get an MBA from a good full-time program, you can do it, and this book gives you the funding sources. Don't want the book, but you want to learn more.
