The Humana Festival Jeffrey Ullom, 2008-06-19 Far from the glittering lights of Broadway in a city known more for its horse racing than its artistic endeavors an annual festival in Louisville Kentucky has transformed the landscape of the American theater The Actors Theatre of Louisville the Tony Award winning state theater of Kentucky in 1976 successfully created what became the nation s most respected new play festival the Humana Festival of New American Plays The Humana Festival The History of New Plays at Actors Theatre of Louisville examines the success of the festival and theater s Pulitzer Prize winning productions that for decades have reflected new play trends in regional theaters and on Broadway the result of the calculated decisions dogged determination and good luck of its producing director Jon Jory The volume details how Actors Theatre of Louisville was established why the Humana Festival became successful in a short time and how the event s success has been maintained by the Louisville venue that has drawn theater critics from around the world for more than thirty years Author Jeffrey Ullom charts the theater s early struggles to survive the battles between troupe leaders and the desperate measures to secure financial support from the Louisville community He examines how Jory established and expanded the festival to garner extraordinary local support attract international attention and entice preeminent American playwrights to premier their works in the Kentucky city In The Humana Festival Ullom provides a broad view of new play development within artistic administrative and financial contexts He analyzes the relationship between Broadway and regional theaters outlining how the Humana Festival has changed the process of new play development and even Broadway's approach to discovering new work and also highlights the struggles facing regional theaters across the country as they strive to balance artistic ingenuity and economic viability. Offering a rare look at the annual event, The Humana Festival provides the first insider's view of the extraordinary efforts that produced the nation's most successful new play festival. Railroad Telegrapher, 1947 The Box Office Check-up, 1934

Showmen's Motion Picture Trade Review, 1954 100 Greatest Cult Films Christopher J. Olson, 2018-04-12 The term cult film may be difficult to define but one thing is certain. A cult film is any movie that has developed a rabid following for one reason or another. From highly influential works of pop art like Eraserhead and Faster Pussycat Kill Kill to trash masterpieces such as Miami Connection and Fateful Findings, thousands of movies have earned recognition as cult classics over the years, and new movies rise to cult status every year. So how do viewers searching for the best or most important cult films decide where to start? In 100 Greatest Cult Films, Christopher J. Olson highlights the most provocative, intriguing, entertaining, and controversial films produced over the last century. The movies included here have either earned reputations as bona fide cult classics or have in some way impacted our understanding of cult cinema, often transcending traditional notions of good and bad while featuring memorable characters, unforgettably shocking scenes, and exceptionally quotable dialogue. With detailed arguments for why these films deserve to be considered among the greatest of all time, Olson provides readers fodder for debate and a jumping off point for future watching. A thought-provoking and accessible look at dozens of cinematic treasures, this resource includes valuable information on the films' creators and institutions that have shaped cult cinema. Ultimately, The 100 Greatest Cult Films offers readers, from casual cinephiles, film scholars, and avid fans alike, a chance to discover or re-discover some of the most memorable films of all time. Theatricals Eleanor

Gwyn-Jones, 2013-12-03 Enna Petersen has never been good at making personal decisions, particularly when she has to choose between her passions. As a theater director, the stage is her world, the spotlight her vitamin D, the waft of greasepaint her oxygen. However, when her handsome American businessman boyfriend proposes and paints the picture of a luxurious life in Pennsylvania, she has to tear her heart in two and give up on her theatrical dreams. But as she navigates the visa gauntlet at the US embassy in England, she meets Will, a charismatic, erudite actor who encourages her to not give up on her dilapidated and much-beloved theater. She is torn, tormented by the thought that her departure will certainly lead to Ashted Theatre's demise, but she follows her heart, says goodbye to her homeland, and begins her new role as Cole's fiancée in America. However, homesickness soon strikes. Enna longs for the English countryside, her theater, and the passion that Will has inspired in her. After her American dreams fall apart, she is reunited with all three back in the UK, and with Will's help, she soon finds her theater more successful than she ever thought possible. She has everything she's ever wanted, including a gorgeous man in her bed to share it with, so why is it she can't stop thinking about Cole? The Railroad Telegrapher, 1958 The Theatre, 1894 The Theatre Clement Scott, Bernard Edward Joseph Capes, Charles Eglington, Addison
