She wants to enjoy motherhood but her idealist vision and lived experience are in constant conflict with one another. Is she broken or is motherhood desperate for an answer she seeks out a therapist and lands with an unexpected woman whose validation and wisdom gives April the clarity to reclaim herself and even start designing clothes her pre motherhood passion. But when the ever elusive babysitter cancels last minute April finds herself back at square one. She seeks guidance but her therapist is now dealing with her own crumbling marriage and instead of counseling April she convinces her to speed off to Las Vegas with her to help catch her husband cheating. With a little weed alcohol and topless pool hopping plus a male stripper and some much needed autonomy the two find lost pieces of themselves that motherhood swallowed up.
