Google Maps Mental Health Tips This Week:

What Doesn't Kill You Tessa Miller, 2021-02-02 Should be read by anyone with a body Relentlessly researched and undeniably smart The New York Times Named one of BuzzFeed's Best Books of 2021 What Doesn't Kill You is the riveting account of a young journalist's awakening to chronic illness weaving together personal story and reporting to shed light on living with an ailment forever Tessa Miller was an ambitious twentysomething writer in New York City when on a random fall day her stomach began to seize up At first she toughed it out through searing pain taking sick days from work unable to leave the bathroom or her bed But when it became undeniable that something was seriously wrong Miller gave in to family pressure and went to the hospital beginning a years long nightmare of procedures misdiagnoses and life threatening infections Once she was finally correctly diagnosed with Crohn's disease Miller faced another battle accepting that she will never get better Today an astonishing three in five adults in the United States suffer from a chronic disease a percentage expected to rise post Covid Whether the illness is arthritis asthma Crohn's diabetes endometriosis multiple sclerosis ulcerative colitis or any other incurable illness and whether the sufferer is a colleague a loved one or you these diseases have an impact on just about every one of us Yet there remains an air of shame and isolation about the topic of chronic sickness Millions must endure these disorders not only physically but also emotionally balancing the stress of relationships and work amid the ever present threat of health complications Miller segues seamlessly from her dramatic personal experiences into a frank look at the cultural realities medical occupational social inherent in receiving a lifetime diagnosis She offers hard earned wisdom solidarity and an ultimately surprising promise of joy for those trying to make sense of it all Remedy

Network J. Caleb Perkins, 2017-12-15 REMEDY NETWORK is a practical guide for millennials who desire the courage to start an initiative of change and share their story J Caleb began Remedy Network Inc after hearing the devastating news of Kalief Browder's suicide that occurred in the summer of 2015 Caleb left his corporate job at 23 years old and moved to New York City to begin Remedy His vision is to see properly resourced millennials who are equipped to reach their personal and professional goals well rounded in their mental health and educated in all spheres of societal influence The Health Service Journal, 2009 Meaningful Work Wes Adams, Tamara Myles, 2025-04-01 A timely clear and actionable book Adam Grant that makes the powerful case that meaning at work drives employee well being high performance and even profit We're in the middle of the most significant transformation in work in over a century Whether it's remote work the rise of burnout and quiet quitting or the changing values and priorities of employees leading an organization has never been more complex But through all this a single factor remains the core driver of fulfilled high performing teams their belief that their work has meaning In Meaningful Work Wes Adams and Tamara Myles advisers to some of the world's most successful companies leverage the science of positive psychology to show leaders why and how to make meaning the cornerstone of leadership practice It is a practical playbook based on decades of research including their own groundbreaking multi year study of meaning at work and stories from leaders you already admire and others that will surprise and inspire you The book reveals that high engagement happiness productivity and financial performance from employees are all outcomes of helping them find meaning at work And that every job can be meaningful when leaders create a workplace culture that focuses on the three Cs Community Contribution and Challenge Whether you lead a team of call center workers care professionals cycling instructors or corporate executives this book will show you how to take small actions each day to inspire passion and performance in every employee
