Storytelling: Critical and Creative Approaches J. Shaw,P. Kelly,L. Semler,2013-11-27 This collection uses the concept of story to connect literary materials and methods of analysis to wider issues of social and political importance Drawing on a range of texts themes include post colonial literatures history in literature old stories in contemporary contexts and the relationship between creativity and criticism Emerging Sports as Social Movements Joshua Woods,2021-07-28 This volume examines the rise of an emerging sport as a grassroots effort or new social movement arguing that the growth of non normative sports movements occurs through two social processes one driven primarily by product development commercialization and consumption and another that relies upon public resources and grassroots efforts Through the lens of disc golf informed by the author s experience both playing and researching the sport Joshua Woods here explores how non normative sports development depends on the consistency of insider culture and ideology as well as on how the movement navigates a broad field of market competition government regulation community characteristics public opinion traditional media social media and technological change Throughout the author probes why some sports grow faster than others examining cultural tendencies toward sport individual choices to participate and the various institutional forces at play
