Paddle Til Dark A Yukon River Journey:

Paddle 'Til Dark Raimonds Zvirbulis, 2018-09-21 This solo wilderness kayaking journey began many years ago years before I even knew anything about kayaks and paddling down remote legendary rivers Poring over maps of those places revealed very little The blank spaces spread far and wide At last after decades of dreaming I stood on the shore of Lake Atlin in British Columbia where the headwaters of the Yukon River are I stood there and thought about all those hope filled years and was thrilled at the anticipation of leaving that morning in mid June Crossing the expanse of Lake Atlin in a fine mist I guided the kayak toward Graham Channel which would take me to Tagish Lake There I met Jim and Marion Brook at their cabin After hot coffee and freshly baked cookies they sent me on my way They were the first of many people who helped me on my journey That evening having found the perfect campsite I inspected the area for bear tracks Finding none I started a large campfire before setting up the tent Supper had been eaten at a previous stop so there was no cooking where I stayed for the night This was the procedure I followed every night It kept animals bigger and hungrier than me from visiting my campsites As I paddled down the lakes I stopped at villages such as Tagish I paddled down Marsh Lake and down dangerous Lake Laberge and I stopped in historic towns such as Whitehorse and Dawson City I passed by wrecked and beached steamboats from the gold rush days and finally crossed the US Canadian line into Alaska I had paddled through a forest fire so immense that it took a day to pass the flames The current carried me past Eagle Circle City though the Yukon flats where the river was ten to twenty miles wide and I crossed the Arctic Circle at Fort Yukon Then came the small villages of Beaver Stevens Village and then the oil pipeline I paddled on to Rampart where the fierce head wind nearly drove me back upstream Next I passed through Tanana where I met Emmet Peter who won the Iditarod long ago then on to Ruby Galena Nulato and Holy Cross where Bergie Demientieff served me coffee and gave good advice Finally I arrived at Russian Mission where I ran out of time after fifty one days and two thousand miles of paddling my kayak There Harvey Pitka and his wife Ester fed me a wonderful dinner before I flew out As the plane climbed and banked toward Bethel I knew that I would return one day to finish my kayak trip to the Bering Sea

Yukon Yearnings Raimonds Zvirbulis, 2017-04-10 Yukon Yearnings is the story of my kayak trip down the Yukon River from the source to the Bering Sea The paddling distance for that solo kayak journey was just over 2 300 miles It was not until completing the journey and returning home that I discovered that no one else had achieved that I was the first person to have paddled the entire Yukon River Prior to the current kayak trip I had paddled two thousand miles of the river from Lake Atlin British Columbia to Russian Mission Alaska My reason for going back to the Yukon was not to be the first person to paddle the whole river My reason was to experience the wilderness again Paddling in the solitude of that wilderness enclosed me in the peace of the lakes and the river There were no distractions no time constraints and no urgent pressures to be in a certain place by a certain time The deep quiet forests and the snowcapped mountains just enraptured me Passing the villages and stopping in some allowed me to meet the people living on the river

Their kindness was as significant as the beauty of the nature all the way to the Bering Sea      The Ultimate Canoe Challenge Brand Frentz, Verlen Kruger, 2004-12 Verlen Kruger and his partner Steve Landick wanted to take a canoe trip that would surpass all others and they did Paddling their canoes or carrying them on the connecting land passages they toured North America from the Arctic Ocean to Baja California from New Orleans to the coast of Maine crossing the USA from south to north and west to east They mastered wild storms on the ocean often paddled 75 100 miles or more in a day shot through deadly rapids going downstream and paddled up several major rivers reaching the climax by going up the Grand Canyon Again and again they were warned It can't be done or You'll never make it but each time they rose to the challenge and kept going finally competing a canoe trip of 28 000 miles that lasted three and a half years and was appropriately named The Ultimate Canoe Challenge This is the story as Verlen lived it      The Living Wilderness Robert Sterling Yard, 1970      Along Alaska's Great River Frederick Schwatka, 1885 These pages narrate the travels of the Alaska exploring expedition of 1883 In April of that year the expedition was organized with seven members at Vancouver Barracks Washington Territory and left Portland Oregon in May floated over the great stream for over thirteen hundred miles the longest raft journey ever made in the interest of geographical science The entire river over two thousand miles was traversed the party returning home by way of Bering's Sea and touching at the Aleutian Islands Preface      Steamboat Bill, 1989
