Exalting Jesus in Daniel Dr. Daniel L. Akin, 2017-08-01 Edited by David Platt Daniel L Akin and Tony Merida this new commentary series projected to be 48 volumes takes a Christ centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible

Agents of Babylon David Jeremiah, 2015-10-06 In his 1 New York Times bestseller Agents of the Apocalypse noted prophecy expert Dr David Jeremiah explored the book of Revelation through the lens of its major players Now in the much anticipated follow up Agents of Babylon Dr Jeremiah examines prophecy through the eyes of the characters in the book of Daniel explains what the prophecies mean and helps us understand how these prophetic visions and dreams apply to our lives today Written in the same highly engaging half dramatization half Bible teaching format as Agents of the Apocalypse Agents of Babylon is not only an in depth exploration of the characters and prophecies contained in the book of Daniel but also a dramatic retelling of Scripture that is sure to bring ancient prophecy to light like never before

Between Encyclopedia and Chorography Anna Boroffka, 2022-10-03 During the early modern period regional specified compendia which combine information on local moral and natural history towns and fortifications with historiography antiquarianism images series or maps gain a new agency in the production of knowledge Via literary and aesthetic practices the compilations construct a display of regional specified knowledge In some cases this display of regional knowledge is presented as a display of a local cultural identity and is linked to early modern practices of comparing and classifying civilizations At the core of the publication are compendia on the Americas which research has described as chorographies encyclopedias or more recently cultural encyclopedias Studies on Asian and European encyclopedias universal histories and chorographies help to contextualize the American examples in the broader field of an early modern and transcultural knowledge production which inherits and modifies the ancient and medieval tradition

The End Times, Again? Martyn Whittock, 2021-10-15 From the Middle Eastern politics of Donald Trump to the UK's 2016 EU Referendum large numbers of Christians are making decisions based on the alleged end times aspects of modern politics Such apocalyptic views often operate beneath the radar of much Christian thought and expression In this book historian Martyn Whittock argues that while the New Testament does indeed teach the second coming of Christ complications occur when Christians seek to confidently identify contemporary events as fulfilments of prophecy Such believers are usually unaware that they stand in a long line of such well intended but failed predictions In this book Whittock explores the history of end times speculations over two thousand years revealing how these often reflect the ideologies and outlooks of contemporary society in their application of Scripture When Christians ignore such past mistakes they are in danger of repeating them Jesus Whittock argues taught a different way
