Not Just Batmans Butler The Autobiography Of Alan Napier:

Not Just Batman's Butler Alan Napier, James Bigwood, 2015-11-02 In January 1966 Alan Napier became a household name on ABC's hit series Batman 1966-1968 as Alfred Pennyworth, loyal butler to the show's title character. This overnight success came after 16 years of stage work and the occasional film in his native England and 26 years of film and television work and the occasional play in the United States. In the early 1970s Napier wrote an autobiography detailing his childhood as a poor relation of the famous Birmingham political family the Chamberlains. Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain was a cousin and his collaborations over the years with the likes of John Gielgud, Laurence Olivier, George Bernard Shaw, Noel Coward, Fritz Lang, Otto Preminger and Alfred Hitchcock. Almost 30 years after Napier's death, James Bigwood, who first read the manuscript in 1975 when interviewing the actor for a Films in Review profile, has prepared it for publication. This is Alan Napier's story in his own words, annotated and updated with dozens of rare photographs. Pine-Thomas Productions David C. Tucker, 2019-08-29 Dubbed The Dollar Bills, William H. Pine and William C. Thomas made 1940s Hollywood take notice with their B movies for Paramount that gave solid entertainment while cutting costs to the bone. In the 1950s, with television looming, Pine-Thomas Productions began making bigger budget films with stars including James Cagney and Jane Wyman and incorporating trends like 3-D. The public is Hollywood's boss, Pine said, and the company gave moviegoers what they wanted. Written with the assistance of the Pine and Thomas families, this book draws on Thomas' never published memoir, interviews with colleagues and relatives, and rarely seen photographs to document the story of Pine-Thomas and its founders. An annotated filmography covers their 76 feature films and five shorts. Appendices give biographical sketches of such actors as Robert Lowery, Jean Parker, and John Payne, as well as the directors, cinematographers, and other crew members who made movies at top speed with more ingenuity than money. Performing Shakespearean Appropriations Darlena

Ciraulo, Matthew Kozusko, Robert Sawyer, 2022-06-29 Performing Shakespearean Appropriations explores the production and consumption of Shakespeare in acts of adaptation and appropriation across time periods and through a range of performance topics. The ten essays, moving from the seventeenth to the twenty-first century, address uses of Shakespeare in the novel, television, cinema, and digital media. Drawing on Christy Desmet's work, several contributors figure appropriation as a posthumanist enterprise that engages with electronic Shakespeare by dismantling, reassembling, and recreating Shakespearean texts in and for digital platforms. The collection thus looks at media and performance technologies diachronically in its focus on Shakespeare's afterlives. Contributors also construe the notion of performance broadly to include performances of selves, of communities, of agencies, and of authenticity, either Shakespeare's or the user's or both. The essays examine both specific performances and larger trends across media, and they consider a full range of modes, from formal and professional to casual and amateur, from the fixed and traditional to the ephemeral, the itinerant, and the irreverent. Universal Terrors, 1951-1955 Tom Weaver, David Schecter, Robert J.
