Scholars' Guide to Washington, D.C., for Peace and International Security Studies Robert W. Janes, Katherine R. Tromble, 1995. A survey of Washington D C area collections, organizations and agencies, this Scholars Guide describes scholarly resources for peace studies and international security studies. Among other topics, coverage includes disarmament, environmental issues, international law, military history and peace theory and research. Four hundred twenty-one institutions are covered out of more than 750 surveyed in the course of the project. Collections include libraries, archives, art and museum collections, map recording, photo and film collections and data banks. Organizations include research centers, information offices, university programs, government agencies and associations. For each, directory information is given along with a description of relevant resources and activities in terms of size, content and organization of collections, programs and products published and unpublished, classified and unclassified. Scholars Guide to Washington D C for Peace and International Security Studies is the fifteenth in the series of Scholars Guides edited by Zdenek V David, librarian at the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in Washington D C. It was prepared in collaboration with the United States Institute of Peace. Transit Research Abstracts, 1995. Project and Construction Management Guidelines Karla H. Karash, 1996. A Corridor Route Simplification Demonstration in Miami, Florida Larry S. English, 1985. Spatial Encounters and Togetherness in the Metropolis Özlem Cihan, 2024-07-15. This book analyzes Istanbul's bus rapid transit the metrobus as an encountering space to unfold the perception and practice of togetherness Based on field research with regular metrobus passengers the book presents a layered analysis between everyday life everyday mobility and togetherness to emphasize the metropolitan impact on the socio spatial experience and subjectification By articulating Lefebvrian social space in a metropolitan context the book discusses that Istanbul s spatially and temporally framed everydayness leads inhabitants to the need for bus rapid transit On the other hand the need for the metrobus produces transit modes of experience in regulars socio spatial relation and subjectification As a result encountering and being with the unfamiliar and diverse others undertake the framed typologies of the first two layers and produce a dissolving essence in the idea and practice of togetherness in Istanbul
