Mary Frances Rogers, C. D. Garrett, 2002 In Who's Afraid of Women's Studies the authors ask why there persists a fear of feminism and women's studies in the academy Rogers and Garrett remind us that this field came into being as the result of women's practical efforts of advocacy and activism to represent marginalized excluded and silenced voices They explain the complex relationship between feminism women s studies and their deradicalized offspring gender studies Six broad topics that have dominated the field over the past twenty five years are examined in individual chapters girls and women s bodies anger and desires sexuality identity politics insider backlash and feminist methods The authors challenge women and men alike to reevaluate the concepts and analytical tools available in women s studies that are so uniquely oriented to understanding women s everyday lived experiences They demonstrate how its rich historical and social analyses are the basis for a passionate scholarship one that builds bridges between theory and practice to transform communities women s organizations and social movements This new book will be a stimulating overview of women s studies gender studies and feminist theory as well as a concise introduction to supplement standard texts or anthologies The Johns Hopkins University Circular Johns Hopkins University,1886 Includes University catalogues President s report Financial report registers announcement material etc The Reader's Adviser Marion Sader,1994 Heartily recommended Since not even a reference librarian par excellence can come close to knowing the best in any given discipline no library should be without access to this set for its patrons Booklist impressively meets a quite formidable task providing basic material on many subjects for the nonspecialist student librarian Choice From age old classics to the writings of today The Reader s Adviser 14th Edition helps you and your patrons select and appreciate the world s greatest books This monumental work features hundreds of authors and thousands of works new to this edition plus updated entries and revised material in every chapter updated critical and biographical profiles reflecting the latest understanding and scholarship more women writers and more culturally diverse writers from around the world title name subject indexes in every volume Order the complete 6 volume set for only 500 00 a savings of 160 00 if you purchased each volume separately Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Reading Writing and Me Mark J.
