Teenagers and the Internet Susan Panzarine, 2001 The PEERS Curriculum for School-Based Professionals Elizabeth A. Laugeson, 2013-10-23 The PEERS Curriculum for School Based Professionals brings UCLA's highly acclaimed and widely popular PEERS program into the school setting. This sixteen week program, clinically proven to significantly improve social skills and social interactions among teens with autism spectrum disorder, is now customized for the needs of psychologists, counselors, speech pathologists, administrators, and teachers. The manual is broken down into clearly divided lesson plans, each of which have concrete rules and steps corresponding homework assignments, plans for review, and unique fun activities to ensure that teens are comfortable incorporating what they've learned. The curriculum also includes parent handouts, tips for preparing for each lesson, strategies for overcoming potential pitfalls, and the research underlying this transformative program.

Screenwise Devorah Heitner, 2023-10-10 The second edition of Screenwise offers a refreshed realistic and optimistic perspective on how to thoughtfully guide kids in the digital age. Many parents feel that their kids are addicted, detached, or distracted because of their digital devices. Media expert Devorah Heitner, however, believes that technology offers huge potential to our children if parents mentor them. Using the foundation of their own values and experiences, parents and educators can learn about the digital world to help set kids up for a lifetime of success in a world fueled by technology. Screenwise is a guide to understanding more about what it is like for children to grow up with technology all around them and to recognizing the special challenges and advantages that contemporary kids and teens experience thanks to this level of connection. In it, Heitner presents practical parenting hacks, quick ideas that you can implement today that will help you understand and relate to your digital native. The new edition includes updated material and additional strategies for parents and caretakers.
