Original Illustrations of English Constitutional History D. J. Medley, 2015-06-26 Excerpt from Original Illustrations of English Constitutional History Teachers of Constitutional History have often asked for a single volume of selected documents suitable to the needs of the ordinary student This book is an attempt to meet that demand It was planned some years ago but my transference from Oxford to Glasgow and the preoccupations of a busy life have stood in the way of an earlier publication My desire has been to choose a few leading documents and certain groups of documents illustrating important subjects to quote these so far as space would permit in their entirety and to explain passages in them by reference to extracts from other authoritative sources Over such a vast field naturally the choice has been difficult Many of the charters and statutes to be selected are sufficiently obvious but beyond these probably no two teachers of the subject would compile identical lists About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

M. Chambers,1911      Reimagining the Historian in Victorian England Elise Garritzen,2023-08-08 What constitutes a historian What skills and qualities should a historian cultivate Who is entitled to define historians physiognomy Victorians sought to answer these questions as history transformed from a Romantic literary pursuit into a modern discipline during the second half of the nineteenth century This book offers a novel interpretation of this critical historiographical period by tracing how historians forged themselves a collective scholarly persona that legitimized their new disciplinary status By combining historiography and book history Elise Garritzen argues that historians appropriated titles prefaces footnotes and other paratexts as an institutionalized space for fashioning the persona Yet historians did not have a monopoly on the persona as readers and reviewers offered their interpretations of the persona and publishers influenced the paratextual presentation of the persona By ascribing agency to paratexts and the literary marketplace Garritzen makes an important shift in the way we perceive the formation of scholarly personae and modern disciplines The book offers a novel approach to the role which scholarly virtues held in the Victorian society the formation of scholarly communities the commodification of knowledge and the management of scientific reputations It provides new insights for scholars interested in the history of humanities science and knowledge book history and Victorian culture      Catalogue of the Library of the Parliament of Ontario Ontario.
