Ultra-Large Aircraft, 1940-1970 William Patrick Dean, 2018-04-04 In 1962 a unique transport aircraft was built from the parts of 27 Boeing B 377 airliners to provide NASA a means of transporting rocket boosters. With an interior the size of a gymnasium The Pregnant Guppy was the first of six enormous cargo planes built by Aero Spacelines and two built by Union de Transport Aériens. More than half a century later the last Super Guppy is still in active service with NASA and the design concept has been applied to next generation transports. This comprehensive history of expanded fuselage aircraft begins in the 1940s with the military's need for a long range transport. The author examines the development of competing designs by Boeing Convair and Douglas and the many challenges and catastrophic failures. Behind the scenes maneuvers of financiers corporate raiders mobsters and other nefarious characters provide an inside look at aviation development from the drawing board to the scrap yard.
