Confident Parents, Confident Children Gillian Pugh, Erica De'Ath, Celia Smith, 1994 Parent and Community Involvement in Education Barry Rutherford, Beckie Anderson, Shelley Billig, 1997 This study focused on parent family and community involvement in middle grade education It addressed three reform themes in the area of middle grade school family and community partnerships 1 What are the larger and local environments within which parent family and community involvement operate How do these contextual factors influence those programs 2 What are the roles that parents families and community and business members assume in the education of their children How are those roles facilitated What key elements are specific to these areas and 3 What are the effects of promising programs on parents students schools and the community How are these effects assessed or determined Findings show that challenges can create opportunities for family involvement strong relationships form the core of family and community involvement responsibilities and decision making need to be shared among all participants sustained family and community involvement depends on active advocacy by leaders and active partnerships require a system of support to sustain them Implications for policymakers include a focus on success for all students as the core of policy for education reform whereby school family and community partnerships are supported Appendix A contains references and Appendix B contains a bibliography of current products RT Report of the Minister of Education Tasmania. Education Department, 1893 Parenting Steven Tuber, 2016-06-24 Parenting Contemporary Clinical Perspectives offers fresh insights into treating parents and their children that highlight the evolving role of parents throughout the lifespan and amidst contemporary social pressure and change By drawing from their own personal experiences as well as those from clinical practice distinguished clinicians and analysts examine each phase of parenting through a variety of lenses to tackle our biggest parenting questions. While we must be highly present for our children to help them develop a sense of self-worth, we must simultaneously step back if we want them to develop a sense of autonomy and individuality. As our role as parent changes, how can we maintain a sense of grace, humor, and perspective? How can our work in practice inform and enrich our parenting and vice versa? Thoughtful and engaging, this volume is a valuable resource for family therapists and clinicians, especially those who are parents themselves.
