Part Object Part Sculpture:

Part Object Part Sculpture Helen Anne Molesworth, 2005 Part Object Part Sculpture maps a genealogy of postwar sculpture that challenges the Minimalist Post Minimalist sequence maintained in most accounts of the period Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art Julia Kelly, 2017-07-05 Taking its departure point from the 1933 surrealist photographs of involuntary sculptures by Brassa nd Dal Found Sculpture and Photography from Surrealism to Contemporary Art offers fresh perspectives on the sculptural object by relating it to both surrealist concerns with chance and the crucial role of photography in framing the everyday This collection of essays questions the nature of sculptural practice looking to forms of production and reproduction that blur the boundaries between things that are made and things that are found One of the book s central themes is the interplay of presence and absence in sculpture as it is highlighted disrupted or multiplied through photography s indexical nature The essays examine the surrealist three dimensional object its relation to and transformation through photographs as well as the enduring legacies of such concerns for the artwork s materiality and temporality in performance and conceptual practices from the 1960s through the present Found Sculpture and Photography sheds new light on the shifts in status of the art object challenging the specificity of visual practices pursuing a radical interrogation of agency in modern and contemporary practices and exploring the boundaries between art and everyday life Gabriel Orozco Ann Temkin, 2009 From the developer of Sculpture Undone, 1955-1972 Elena Filipovic, Joanna Mytkowska, Alina Szapocznikow, 2011 A sculptor who began working during the postwar period in a classical figurative style Alina Szapocznikow radically reconceptualized sculpture as an imprint not only of memory but also of her own body Though her career effectively spanned less than two decades cut short by the artist s premature death in 1973 at age 47 Szapocznikow left behind a legacy of provocative objects that evoke Surrealism Nouveau R ealisme and Pop art Her tinted polyester casts of body parts often transformed into everyday objects like lamps or ashtrays her poured polyurethane forms and her elaborately constructed sculptures which at times incorporated photographs clothing or car parts all remain as wonderfully idiosyncratic and culturally resonant today as when they were first made Well known in Poland where her work has been highly influential since early in her career Szapocznikow s compelling book of work is ripe for art historical reexamination Alina Szapocznikow Sculpture Undone 1955 1972 offers a comprehensive overview of this important artist s work at a moment when international interest is blossoming Spanning one of the most rich and complex periods of the 20th century Szapocznikow s oeuvre responds to many of the ideological and artistic developments of her time through artwork that is at once fragmented and transformative sensual and reflective playfully realized and politically charged Featuring over 100 works including sculpture drawings and photography the exhibition draws on loans from private and public collections including major institutions in Poland It is accompanied by a major publication co published by The Museum of Modern Art and Mercatorfonds that reflects new scholarship on Szapocznikow contextualizing
