Part Asian 100percent Hapa:

Amerasia Journal ,2009      Racial Feelings Jeffrey Santa Ana,2015-06-12 In Racial Feelings Jeffrey Santa Ana examines how Asian American narratives communicate and critique to varying degrees the emotions that power the perception of Asians as racially different Santa Ana explores various forms of Asian American cultural production ranging from literature and graphic narratives to film and advertising to illuminate the connections between global economic relations and the emotions that shape aspirations for the good life He illustrates his argument with examples including the destitute Filipino immigrant William Paulinha in Han Ong's Fixer Chao who targets his anger on the capitalist forces of objectification that racially exploit him and Nan and Pingpin in Ha Jin's A Free Life who seek happiness and belonging in America Racial Feelings addresses how Asian Americans both resist and rely on stereotypes in their writing and art work In addition Santa Ana investigates how capitalism shapes and structures an emotional discourse that represents Asians as both economic exemplars and threats      Asian American X Arar Han,John Y. Hsu,2004-08-05 Original writings address the struggles of young Asian Americans to define their identities while growing up in the United States      When Half Is Whole Stephen Murphy-Shigematsu,2012-10-10 I listen and gather people's stories Then I write them down in a way that I hope will communicate something to others so that seeing these stories will give readers something of value I tell myself that this isn't going to be done unless I do it just because of who I am It's a way of making my mark leaving something behind not that I'm planning on going anywhere right now So explains Stephen Murphy Shigematsu in this touching introspective and insightful examination of mixed race Asian American experiences The son of an Irish American father and Japanese mother Murphy Shigematsu uses his personal journey of identity exploration and discovery of his diverse roots to illuminate the journeys of others Throughout the book his reflections are interspersed among portraits of persons of biracial and mixed ethnicity and accounts of their efforts to answer a seemingly simple question Who am I Here we meet Norma raised in postwar Japan the daughter of a Japanese woman and an American serviceman who struggled to make sense of her ethnic heritage and national belonging Wei Ming born in Australia and raised in the San Francisco of the 1970s and 1980s grapples as well with issues of identity in her case both ethnic and sexual We also encounter Rudy a Mexipino Marshall a Jewish adopted Korean Mitzi a Blackinawan and other extraordinary people who find how connecting to all parts of themselves also connects them to others With its attention on people who have been regarded as half this or half that throughout their lives these stories make vivid the process of becoming whole      Asian Americans in the Twenty-first Century Joann Faung Jean Lee,2008 The collective term Asian American comprises more than 20 distinct nationalities and ethnic groups In this all new collection of fascinating interviews with Asian Americans Lee draws upon her skill and sensitivity as a journalist to reveal a rich mosaic of Asian identities      Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience Sang Chi,Emily Moberg Robinson,2012-02-13 This unique work presents an extraordinary breadth of contemporary and historical views on Asian America and Pacific Islanders conveyed through the voices of the men and women who lived these experiences over more than 150 years In 1848 the First Wave of Asian immigration arrived in the United States By the first decade of the 21st century Asian Americans were the nation s fastest growing racial group Through a far ranging array of primary source documents Voices of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Experience shares what it was like for these diverse peoples to live and work in the United States for better and for worse Organized chronologically by ethnicity the book covers a panoply of ethnic groups including recent Asian immigrants and mixed race mixed heritage Asian Americans There is also a topical section that showcases views on everything from politics to class to gender dynamics underscoring that the Asian American population is not nor has it ever been monolithic In choosing material the editors strove to make the volume as comprehensive as possible Thus readers will discover documents written by transnational adopted and homosexual Asian Americans as well as documents written from particular religious positions Blasian Invasion Myra S.

Washington,2017-10-26 Myra S Washington probes the social construction of race through the mixed race identity of Blasians people of Black and Asian ancestry She looks at the construction of the identifier Blasian and how this term went from being undefined to forming a significant role in popular media Today Blasian has emerged as not just an identity Black Asian mixed race people can claim but also a popular brand within the industry and a signifier in the culture at large Washington tracks the transformation of Blasian from being an unmentioned category to a recognized status applied to other Blasian figures in media Blasians have been neglected as a meaningful category of people in research despite an extensive history of Black and Asian interactions within the United States and abroad Washington explains that even though Americans have mixed in every way possible racial mixing is framed in certain ways which almost always seem to involve Whiteness Unsurprisingly media discourses about Blasians mostly conform to usual scripts already created reproduced and familiar to audiences about monoracial Blacks and Asians In the first book on this subject Washington regards Blasians as belonging to more than one community given their multiple histories and experiences Moving beyond dominant rhetoric she does not harp on defining or categorizing mixed race but instead recognizes the multiplicities of Blasians and the process by which they obtain meaning Washington uses celebrities including Kimora Lee Dwayne Johnson Hines Ward and Tiger Woods to highlight how they challenge and destabilize current racial debate create spaces for themselves and change the narratives that frame multiracial people Finally Washington asserts Blasians as evidence not only for the fluidity of identities but also for the limitations of reductive racial binaries Statistical Report ,1984 Giant Robot ,1999 Statistical Report Hawaii.

Dept. of Planning and Economic Development. Research and Economic Analysis Division,1981 Hawai'i Is My Haven

Nitasha Tamar Sharma,2021-08-02 Nitasha Tamar Sharma maps the context and contours of Black life in Hawai i showing how despite the presence of anti Black racism the state s Black residents consider it to be their haven from racism

Hawaii Magazine ,2003 Part Asian, 100% Hapa Kip Fulbeck,2010-07-01 Once a derogatory label derived from the

Hawaiian word for half Hapa is now being embraced as a term of pride by many people of Asian or Pacific Rim mixed race heritage Award winning film producer and artist Kip Fulbeck has created a forum in word and image for Hapas to answer the question they re nearly always asked What are you Fulbeck s frank head on portraits are paired with the sitters own statements of identity A work of intimacy beauty and powerful self expression Part Asian 100% Hapa is the book Fulbeck says he wishes he had growing up An introduction to the rest of the world and an affirmation for Hapas themselves who now number in the millions it offers a new perspective on a rapidly growing population Part Asian, 100% Hapa Kip Fulbeck, 2008-05-22

Hapa Girl May-Lee Chai, 2008-09-01 In the mid 1960s Winberg Chai a young academic and the son of Chinese immigrants married an Irish American artist In Hapa Girl hapa is Hawaiian for mixed their daughter tells the story of this loving family as they moved from Southern California to New York to a South Dakota farm by the 1980s In their new Midwestern home the family finds itself the object of unwelcome attention which swiftly escalates to violence The Chais are suddenly socially isolated and barely able to cope with the tension that arises from daily incidents of racial animosity including random acts of cruelty May lee Chai s memoir ends in China where she arrives just in time to witness a riot and demonstrations Here she realizes that the rural Americans fears of change of economic uncertainty of racial anxiety of the unknowable future compared to the known past were the same as China s And I realized finally that it had not been my fault

Hapa Me , 2018-04-07 Celebrating the millions of individuals worldwide identifying as part Asian or Pacific Islander Kip Fulbeck s long awaited follow up to his beloved Hapa book pairs portraits and statements from the original series many before never published with contemporary portraits of the same Hapa individuals and newly written statements showing not only their physical changes over time but also changes in their perspectives and outlooks on the world This elegant photography book also over 100 new portraits as well as essays by Hapa luminaries Velina Hasu Houston Cindy Nakashima Keao NeSmith and Paul Spickard
