The Film Weekly ,1944    Front Pages Nancy Chunn,1997 Front Pages is an illustrated novel of the real world created by the painter Nancy Chunn. Every day of 1996 Chunn claimed as an artistic canvas the front page of the New York Times. Using specialized rubber stamps and bold pastels to enhance, eradicate and alter images and text, she created a commentary colorful, intense, smart, compassionate, visually explosive on the year's events and the power of the press. When these artworks were shown at the Ronald Feldman Gallery in New York, they created a sensation. Chunn's treatment of the events we all lived through—the Presidential campaign, the crash of TWA flight 800, the wars in Chechnya and Rwanda—will strike an immediate chord in readers tuned in to the complex frequencies of a political world awash in images and news. Gary Indiana's interview with the artist provides lively and intimate insights into the artistic process as means of talking back to power and engaging with the world.
