The Palgrave Handbook of Incarceration in Popular Culture Marcus Harmes, Meredith Harmes, Barbara Harmes, 2020-02-03 The Handbook of Incarceration in Popular Culture will be an essential reference point providing international coverage and thematic richness The chapters examine the real and imagined spaces of the prison and perhaps more importantly dwell in the uncertain space between them The modern fixation with seeing inside prison from the outside has prompted a proliferation of media visions of incarceration from high minded and worthy to voyeuristic and unrealistic In this handbook the editors bring together a huge breadth of disparate issues including women in prison the view from inside prisons as a source of entertainment the real worlds of prison and issues of race and gender The handbook will inform students and lecturers of media film popular culture gender and cultural studies as well as scholars of criminology and justice Women, Film, and Law Suzanne Bouclin, 2021-03-15 Entertainment and profit constitute the driving force behind popular representations of women in correctional facilities But the creative influence of film and television also generates legal meaning The women in prison WIP genre can leave viewers feeling both empathetic toward the women portrayed in these representations and troubled about the crimes for which they have been convicted Focusing on five exemplary WIP films and a television series Ann Vickers Caged Caged Heat Stranger Inside Civil Brand and Orange Is the

New Black Women Film and Law asks how fictional representations explore shape and refine beliefs about women who are incarcerated From melodrama to exploitation and from theatre screenings to on demand film television programs and music videos these texts bring into view the legal economic and political structures that criminalize women differently from men and that target those women who are already marginalized Women Film and Law convincingly argues that popular depictions of women s imprisonment can illuminate the multiple forms of social exclusion and oppression experienced by criminalized women
